

Fun for all at Teulon Pumpkinfest

By Jennifer McFee

Crowds gathered on Saturday for the much-anticipated Teulon tradition of Pumpkinfest.

On Saturday, Sept. 17, crowds gathered indoors and outdoors Teulon Hall for food and entertainment, as well as in the nearby schoolyard for ongoing children's activities.

"We had over 1,000 in attendance, but with the schedule of the day, everything flowed well and there was room for everyone," said Darci Loehmer, chairperson of the Teulon Ag Society, which hosts Teulon Pumpkinfest.

This year's Gigantic Pumpkin Weigh-Off competition brought a new record for the biggest entry ever at Pumpkinfest — a whopping 1,017 pounds grown by Jason Terwin of Carman.

Other highlights included popular performances throughout the day from talented musicians, dancers and more, as well as an impressive assortment of entries for the fair competition.

Community involvement was also key at the 29th annual event. The Liliane Baron South Interlake Breast Cancer Support Group was on hand selling tickets and the Lions Club served up tasty food all day long.

"All the entertainment was amazing. Marc Morrisseau's band, the Summer Bear Dance Troupe, Teakle Family Circus and dog agility show were standing-room only," Loehmer said.

"The petting zoo, pie-eating contest and our new-this-year duck dump were all hits and will return next year."

Safe to say, the event lived up to the Ag Society's mission to promote rural living — and to celebrate fall and all that is pumpkin!

"The Ag Society is grateful to everyone who came out to Pumpkinfest and helped us celebrate fall. We are already thinking about 2023 and what we will plan for our 30th anniversary," Loehmer said.

"We are always looking for volunteers if anyone wants to join. It can be to help organize the event or even just a small part. It's when we come together as a community that we con-

Remembering the good old days

Stonewall resident, Bill Campbell, 85, sits in his 1918 Rumely oil pull tractor at the Red Barn in Stonewall on Sunday for Threshing Days.

A 1928 John Deere thresher was put to work during Threshing Days at the South Interlake Rocklands Antique Society Red Barn and grounds south of Stonewall on Sunday.

After a minor mechanical malfunction, the thresher was up and running to give bystanders a glimpse of the past as the 1918 Rumely oil pull tractor provided the power to this piece of prairie history.

Rocklands Antique Club president Lloyd Harris explained the thresher was purchased from an auction for $1,200 and was originally owned by Bob Appleyard.

"Not every farmer had a thresher back then so it went from farm to farm during harvest," Harris explained. The John Deere thresher was in "pretty good shape" when the club purchased it.

Rocklands Antique Club member Bill Campbell owns the Rumely, which belonged to his late father Roy Campbell. Bill Campbell pulled the 1918 Rumely oil pull tractor up to the 1928 John Deere thresher in a field by the Red Barn in Stonewall on Sunday for a demonstration on how antique farm equipment worked back in the day.

Rumely oil pull farm tractors were developed and built by Advance-Rumely Company starting in 1909. Campbell explained that the tractor sucks air up to cool the engine like a radiator. Puffs of oily smoke billowed from the smokestack on the tractor as Campbell revved the engine, keeping it at a constant so that the belt, which is wrapped around a smooth, wide wheel, powers the 1928 John Deere thresher. Campbell has owned the Rumely for 25 years. This was Campbell's fourth time using the tractor for threshing demonstrations.

The Rocklands Antique Club members showed spectators how a 1928 John Deere thresher operated at the Red Barn in Stonewall during displays and demonstrations to the public. Doug Kroll, secretary treasurer of the club, tossed a fork full of wheat sheaves onto the conveyor belt while Bill Fleury, vice-president of the club, reaches for another pile. It was the first time in two years the club was able to host the event since the pandemic.

Bystanders look on as the straw is separated from the wheat and dumped out through a chute. Roughly 50 people attended the event, which was a sharp decline from previous years due to the impact the pandemic has had on gatherings in the province.

Red Hat Society looking to expand with new chapters

By Lorne Stelmach

Rossita Schau and her friends will usually stand out in a crowd thanks to what they're wearing — and that's just the way they like it.

Dressed in purple and wearing red on their heads, the Red Hat Society is an organization that is simply about fun and fellowship.

The Red Hat Society has members (called "Red Hatters") across Manitoba, and they are trying to reach as many communities as possible to join in the fun in conjunction with their 25th year in the province next year.

"We go out once a month and partake in some sort of activity," said Schau.

"Because you're dressed in purple attire and wearing a red hat, everyone would look at you when you're sitting in a restaurant and a lot of people and especially ladies would come up and ask what is this all about," she said.

"Being a member of the Red Hat Society gives you the chance to meet so many wonderful ladies who will become friends."

It all started in 1998 in Fullerton, Calif., when Sue Ellen Cooper gave her friend, who was turning 50, a thrift shop hat and a poem by Jenny Joseph called "Warning" as birthday gifts. Thus, the Red Hat Society was born.

The organization today includes not only the Red Hat Society for ladies 50 and over but also the Pink Hat Divas for women under 50.

The movement has spread across the globe. There are currently 20 chapters in Manitoba, although Schau believes at one time, in the early 2000s, there were as many as 167 chapters here.

She would love to see those numbers grow once again, including, potentially, with new chapters or expanding any of our current groups in Eriksdale, Gimli, Stonewall or Selkirk.

"We would absolutely love to see more people get involved, especially rurally, and start more chapters here," said Schau, who has been involved since 2005 and is currently a member and Queen of the "Bling Sisters" chapter in Winnipeg.

They meet once a month to participate in an activity. Dressed in purple and a red hat, members have been to plays, the ballpark, pole dancing, lawn bowling, painting classes, trips to some unique museums in Manitoba, and much more.

There is also the possibility to travel to many conventions hosted by various Canadian provinces and international locations, but particularly the U.S.

As women age, society sees their roles of having raised children and taken care of family as done, so it is time to sit back, said Schau, and embrace the golden years with joy.

"As you age, a lot of times, you lose friends. ... Now you need girlfriends, people to chum around with. It's just wonderful friendships. ... We don't do fundraising; we don't have meetings," she said.

"What drew me to it was it just seemed like such a wonderful group of women. It was the camaraderie that you get with the different ladies in the group. It was a wonderful way to meet new friends and experience just different activities."

She encourages people to either join a chapter or better yet get a bunch of friends together to start their own chapter.

Manitoba government announces free menstrual products in schools

Submitted by Manitoba government

The Manitoba government has reached an agreement with Shoppers Drug Mart to provide free menstrual products to schools and other agencies to improve accessibility and reduce period poverty, Families Minister Rochelle Squires, minister responsible for the status of women and Education and Early Childhood Learning Minister Wayne Ewasko last week.

"Thanks to this innovative partnership, we are progressing towards destigmatizing the nature of getting your period by supporting young women and girls when they need it most," said Squires. "This significant shift will ensure thousands of students and others most in need will have reliable and consistent access to menstrual products wherever they live in our province."

Through the agreement with Shoppers Drug Mart, schools, domestic violence shelters, resource centres, and second stage and specialized programs will receive menstrual products to administer to those most in need.

"Students in Manitoba deserve to feel comfortable going to school knowing they have access to free menstrual products when they need it, without barriers or stigma," said Ewasko. "This agreement will help build more inclusive learning environments for people who menstruate across the province and is expected to lead to positive impacts on student engagement and well-being."

As part of this partnership, more than 3.3 million menstrual products will be donated to the initiative each year for three years. The Manitoba government will distribute the products monthly to schools and other identified locations. School divisions and schools will determine where the supplies are most needed.

"Inequitable access to period products, particularly for students, can lead to missed opportunities — school, work and other activities — and creates barriers to success," said Jeff Leger, president, Shoppers Drug Mart. "This donation will provide students in Manitoba with free access to period products, helping to more fully unlock their potential. We are proud to be a part of this initiative, and grateful to our stores, to Procter & Gamble and to our customers for their support."

Ewasko noted providing free menstrual products to students delivers on the government's commitment to building a fair and equitable public education system, supporting the Student Engagement and Well-Being pillar of Manitoba's K to 12 Education Action Plan. As noted in the plan, the government will continue to work with education stakeholders, parents and caregivers to ensure holistic supports are available to address student needs, including mental health and wellness.

"Menstrual products are a right, not a privilege, and should be safe and affordable for everyone," said Chloe Crockford and Isabella O'Brien, Grade 11 students at Collège Jeanne-Sauvé.

This announcement marks Manitoba's sixth collaborative social finance program to explore innovative solutions and deliver better outcomes, the minister noted. The agreement is Shoppers Drug Mart's second major collaboration with the Manitoba government using innovative social policy tools that bring together government, the private sector, not-for-profits and other stakeholders to deliver effective solutions.

Government announces significant support through spring flood disaster financial assistance program

Application deadline fast approaching

Submitted by Manitoba government

The Manitoba government has received more than 1,800 applications from Manitobans for support through the Disaster Financial Assistance (DFA) program after spring flooding caused extensive damage throughout the province, Transportation and Infrastructure Minister Doyle Piwniuk announced.

"The spring flood of 2022 will be remembered for the sheer size and scope of damage it caused across our province, and our government understands that many individuals and communities need support to recover," said Piwniuk. "We are pleased to be able to offer assistance through the DFA program and encourage all eligible Manitobans to apply."

Manitoba experienced unprecedented flooding in spring because of high winter snowpack and storms throughout April, May, June and July that brought a mix of snow, freezing rain and rain that created high river and lake levels and substantial overland flooding. Private residences, farms, small businesses, non-profit organizations, provincial and municipal infrastructure were impacted.

This year's DFA program was established on May 9 while spring flooding was still underway to ensure timely assistance for affected Manitobans. Since then, the province has received approximately 115 municipal claims involving more than 6,900 sites across the province, as well as 1,800 private applications. The DFA program is expected to provide tens of millions of dollars in assistance, the minister said.

Municipalities, primary residences, farms, small businesses and non-profit organizations with impacts related to spring flooding that occurred from March 20 to July 20 of this year may apply to the DFA program, the minister said. The deadline for applications is Sept. 23.

The DFA program assists with uninsurable losses to basic and essential property but does not provide financial assistance for losses related to sewer backup, cottages, secondary properties or loss of income or opportunity.

Manitobans are reminded to review home insurance policies and speak with insurance providers, as many providers offer overland flood insurance.

Manitoba continues to work with the federal government to ensure Manitoba's 2022 Spring Flood DFA program is cost-shared under Canada's Disaster Financial Assistance Arrangements.

Manitoba has also established the Mitigation and Preparedness Program (MPP), which incentivizes municipalities to invest DFA cost-share support in mitigation to protect against future disasters. Many municipalities have already submitted projects for consideration under the MPP and the Manitoba government encourages all eligible municipalities to apply before the deadline.

For more information on the DFA program or to apply, visit www.manitoba.ca/emo/dfa.

Municipalities interested in applying for the MPP should visit www.gov.mb.ca/emo/mitigation/mpp.

with us > FAITH

...you too may have fellowship with us & indeed our fellowship is with the Father & with his Son Jesus Christ. 1 John 1:3

I remember when I started serving with the church. I was terrified. I so longed to help but really struggled relationally. Being a loner most of the time had become a safe place. Little did I know that the walls I had built to protect myself in had become my own prison and fear had kept me there — fear of failure, of getting hurt, which are natural feelings but how I was dealing with them was not healthy. Genesis 2:18 The Lord said, "It is not good for man to be alone." Studies have found that to be true. It is scientifically proven that loneliness is bad for your health. It distorts your thinking and makes you vulnerable to addiction. No wonder the Lord says it is not good to be alone.

So how do we push through the fears and embrace fellowship with others? Pray and ask the Lord to guide you where to go. Join a church and home group and begin to share with others how they can pray for you. I tried a few churches before I ended up where I knew the Lord wanted me to be. Boy, was there room to grow in fellowship there! The Greek word for fellowship is koinonia, meaning partnership, participation and communion, all of which involves other people. Learning to work with others will get messy because of human nature. Maybe that's why forgiveness is so important. Choosing not to get offended and doing the hard work of getting along with one another produces good results (James 3:18). It provides the perfect place to grow as individuals and learn more about ourselves and others in the process. Only then can we experience the kind of joy God wants us to have that comes from being in fellowship with one another. John continues in Verse 4 ... and we are writing these things that our joy may be complete. The joy of knowing you are loved and forgiven by God and man through Jesus Christ. Training for volunteers who want to teach Bible lessons to children is coming up! Email Laura at llawrence@cefmanitoba.org

Death by COVID spikes; IERHA hires nurses

By Patricia Barrett

The provincial government's COVID surveillance report for the period Sept. 4-10 (reporting Week 36) shows a spike of 19 new deaths from the virus.

Manitoba's COVID death toll now stands at 2,137. The previous week showed a total of 2,118 deaths.

Sixty-five people needed to be admitted to hospital during the above reporting period, including 10 people who required medical intervention in the intensive care unit. The previous week's report showed 70 hospital admissions and 16 ICU admissions.

The provincial government doesn't report data showing the total number of COVID patients in hospital on any given day or week.

There were also 342 new laboratory-confirmed COVID infections for Week 36. The public shouldn't rely on that data as a means by which to judge COVID risk because the data are an undercount; the government restricts access to lab testing and rapid antigen tests aren't tracked. The previous week's report showed 475 new infections.

The report notes that wastewater surveillance data to Sept. 8 for the City of Winnipeg indicate ongoing COVID activity.

The government reported two new COVID outbreaks in acute care hospitals, at Winnipeg's HSC and at the Brandon Regional Health Centre for the above period, and no outbreaks in personal care homes across province.

But the Interlake-Eastern Regional Health Authority's medical officer of health reported last Thursday that there are three new COVID outbreaks in its region, at the Ashern Personal Care Home, Selkirk's Tudor House Personal Care Home and at the Stonewall hospital.

There was a significant COVID outbreak in August at Gimli's Betel Personal Care Home, where at least 33 residents were infected at one point in time and at least two died. The outbreak has not yet been declared over (as of Sept. 17).

Other health news:

The IERHA's medical officer of health Dr. Karen Robinson said COVID's effect is similar to cold viruses and there's not a lot of severe illness in personal care homes.

"Right now, we're finding that COVID severity is similar to other cold viruses. We're not seeing very much severe illness in nursing homes, although we're certainly seeing lots of [COVID] outbreaks in nursing homes," said Robinson during a conference call with municipal leaders on Sept. 14. "But the number of severe outcomes is a lot lower than what it was previously. So COVID is currently causing, overall, mild illness similar to other cold viruses. Our current approach is for individuals to assess their own risk and their own comfort level. ..."

Dr. Robinson also provided meaning to comments made by the provincial government's deputy chief public health officer Dr. Jazz Atwal.

Atwal had told Manitobans early in September that "it's OK to get infected" with COVID because it can build up immunity. He was subsequently criticized by medical and epidemiological experts for not only minimizing health risks that can arise from getting a COVID infection but for also potentially influencing unsafe behaviour with regard to the virus.

But Robinson said Manitobans have "high levels of immunity" to COVID, citing an estimate made by Cadham Lab in April. She didn't say how long that immunity — whether natural or vaccine-induced — lasts.

"Dr. Atwal said at a news conference that it's OK to catch COVID," said Dr. Robinson. "That's a very different message from what we were hearing previously, but I think it just recognizes that COVID has become an endemic virus, a virus that circulates through our communities just like lots of other viruses circulate in our community."

Endemic refers to a pathogen/disease that's restricted to a certain area or areas. Because COVID has spread — and continues to cause waves of infection and deaths — around the world, it's not considered an endemic virus by the World Health Organization. It says the pandemic continues.

"We can end the emergency of #COVID19 in all countries, but the pandemic is not over and we still have a lot of work to do," said WHO infectious disease epidemiologist Maria Van Kerkhove in a Sept. 16 tweet. "So many tools exist that [lower] the spread of SARS-CoV-2, prevent long term consequences & save lives. We can do this."

The WHO's dashboard as of Sept. 16 shows over 6.5 million people having died from COVID.

- IERHA CEO Marion Ellis said there has been a lot negative publicity about health-care staffing, but the health authority is continuing with recruitment and retention and has made some hiring gains.

"You do know across developed countries ... there are challenges with staffing. And we've been seeing a lot of negative publicity about this. Some of it is coming from places of concern by patients and families and health-care providers. There has been some finger-pointing but in reality we're at a place where some of us have never experienced this type of workforce crisis in the past," said Ellis during the conference call. "It doesn't mean we can give up. We still have to continue to support the staff we have, continue to preserve services and access ... and continue with recruitment and retention and adopting new models of care."

Nursing vacancies in the region are trending upwards, she said, but the health authority has hired some new nurses.

One licensed practical nurse (LPN) has been hired in Arborg for acute care. Ashern hired three LPNs, who started Sept. 6, 12 and 14. Ashern hired a registered nurse who started Sept. 12. Ashern also hired a nurse in July from the Eriksdale PCH. Eriksdale hired two LPNs, and one has already started, while Gimli has hired three LPNs. Stonewall is hiring three LPNs. One LPN has been hired into a heart and dialysis program [hospital unspecified]. Other new nurse hires are coming to Selkirk.

Some of the recent hires had completed an LPN course, which was facilitated by Ashern's Fieldstone Ventures and offered in Arborg, and others completed an LPN program supported by the Manitoba Metis Federation, said Ellis.

Nurses are leaving the RHA for jobs in esthetics and for jobs with agencies that are advertising travel points for vacation destinations based on nurses' accumulated work hours and other incentives, such as paying nurses' travel time on the road to and from work, she said.

"We don't get a lot of sunny weekends in Manitoba so in the summer we've always found it stressful to keep [health] services going ... particularly this year," said Ellis. "If you're somebody who wants to be with your family on weekends or with your friends, or go on weekend trips ... these advertisements are appealing."

Ellis didn't say if any nurses have been hired in the eastern half of the IERHA, but said the "government has been very responsive to see how we can get going with an LPN program that needs to be on the east side of the region."

Rockwood council news in brief

By Jennifer McFee

A proposed cannabis store could soon be lighting up interest in the RM of Rockwood.

Council received an application from Glazer Holdings Ltd. for a cannabis retail store on a 2.13-acre property located south of Teulon at Provincial Road 415 and Highway 7.

The property also includes Fry-Days Restaurant and Lounge, as well as a detached garage and shop building and a partially paved parking lot.

The applicant, Holly Spencer, would like to renovate a portion of the restaurant and lounge to become a licensed cannabis retail store. Both businesses would be independent, and the applicant would own both businesses.

Spencer, who holds a master of social work degree, noted that the site is on the periphery of Teulon, away from most residences, and it's not near any school or youth facilities.

In addition, the site is commercial, easily accessible and has off-street parking for more than 60 vehicles.

She said the proposal would address a service gap, since community members currently travel about 30 minutes to access legal cannabis. Spencer noted that she consulted with Manitoba Liquor and Lotteries to learn that a cannabis licence can exist in the same building as a liquor licence, as long as there is a physical separation made by doors and walls.

The proposed store hours would be 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. daily, although during the summer or weekends, it could extend to 8 or 9 p.m.

Non-medical cannabis was legalized in Canada on Oct. 17, 2018. Manitoba Liquor and Lotteries and the Liquor, Gaming and Cannabis Authority of Manitoba regulate cannabis retail with stringent operational requirements. As well, the federal government regulates cannabis products, packaging and advertising.

The South Interlake Planning District had no significant concerns with the proposal. At a public hearing on Sept. 14, two people attended in support of the application.

Council conditionally approved the request.

In other council news:

- Council approved a request to vary a front yard setback from the required 125 feet to 50 feet to accommodate the construction of a detached garage.

- Council conditionally approved a request to vary front and rear yard requirements for the placement of a 294-square-foot shed.

- Council conditionally approved a request to reduce the required front yard requirement to accommodate an addition on an existing house.

- Council conditionally approved a vary the minimum site requirement for a proposed subdivided lot.

- Council conditionally approved a request to subdivide a 7.67-acre property to create seven residential lots in Gunton.

- Council conditionally approved a request to subdivide a 5.72-acre farmstead lot from an 80.29-acre property south of Teulon.

- Recycle Everywhere is offering free cleanup kits to encourage and support community initiatives. These kits include 25 garbage bags, 25 recycling bags, 25 pairs of gloves and a postcard with tips. To request a free cleanup kit, visit www.recycleeverywhere.ca.

- The RM of Rockwood is requesting permission from Manitoba Infrastructure to allow the municipality to regrade the ditch and associated culverts on the north side of Provincial Road 323 from Road 1E to Road 3E.

- Stonewall and Area Mobility Services submitted an application to the Rural Transit Solutions Fund to seek funding towards a project to convert part of its fleet into electric vehicles. Council confirmed its financial commitment of $25,000 towards a project.

- The RM of Rockwood will contribute $1,000 as a gold table sponsor for the South West District Palliative Care's annual gala dinner and dance. Eight representatives will attend.

- Stony Mountain Goose Shoot Association requested permission to host a goose shoot in the Stony Mountain Community Centre on Sept. 30. Council authorized Manitoba Liquor and Lotteries to approve the goose shoot, which will run from 3 p.m. to 1 a.m. on Sept. 30 and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Oct. 1.

- Council gave first reading to a bylaw to regulate the use of the SMI/Rockwood Wastewater Treatment Lagoon by sewage wastewater haulers.

- Council authorized an agreement between the RM of Rockwood and JR Cousin Consultants to provide a quote for engineering services for the Stony Mountain lift station and forcemain extension project.

Stonewall council news in brief

By Jennifer McFee

Local families can look forward to more childcare spaces coming to Stonewall through an innovative pilot project.

The provincial government is providing a capital funding grant to develop new childcare spaces within new childcare centres with licensed and approved operators.

The Town of Stonewall will work in partnership with JohnQ Public Inc./JQ Built Inc. Pilot Project, a collaborative replicable process to support and share community capacity across Manitoba to build community infrastructure.

"After we do this pilot project, then it will expand to other municipalities," Mayor Clive Hinds said at a special meeting of council on Sept. 14.

"I'm glad we're in the first phase — and especially that we're in this pilot project so that we can get something started."

The Town of Stonewall will provide at least two acres of serviced land for the purpose of operating a childcare centre and will also pay all acquisition and pre-development costs.

In addition, the town will pay operational and maintenance costs. The CAO will negotiate these details with the provincial government in a financial assistance agreement. Then this financial assistance agreement will come back to council for approval.

This pilot project will focus on creating 74 spaces with a tentative timeline in 2023. The site under consideration is the current location of the Scouts Hall.

In other council news:

- Council was expected to make a decision at the Sept. 21 meeting about a restricted animal permit application for an American miniature pig that serves as a support animal.

Green Acres Arts Centre fall and winter programming

By Ty Dilello

Teulon's Green Acres Arts Centre (GAAC) has a wide variety of fall and winter programming, with signups underway.

The Green Acres Art Centre, located in Green Acres Park, provides arts, music and cultural activities for the Town of Teulon and the surrounding Interlake area. It is run by a board of directors and has set up several committees working diligently to increase the programs offered each year.

The GAAC has programs for people of all ages, from preschool to seniors. Classes include dance, theatre, musical theatre, piano, guitar, vocal, banjo and various art programs. Disc Golf will also be installed soon at Green Acres Park for people to get out and play.

"What's new for this cycle is that we're moving our theatre and musical theatre program to Balmoral Community Hall. Usually it's in Teulon, but we've had a lot of support from Balmoral and Stonewall and had a lot of people registered over the summer, so we wanted to spread out to there," said Lana Knor, president of GAAC.

"But, as always, we have fantastic professional and talented art instructors that are dedicated to the art centre and providing a very positive experience to everyone that attends a class."

Registration forms are found on the Green Acres website at www.greenacresartcentre.ca.

For 55+ seniors, activity planning is underway and will be announced soon. Some of the games listed include pickleball, floor curling, floor shuffleboard and much more. Email Amanda for more info on activities at gaacevents@mymts.net.

The GAAC currently has a variety of volunteer positions that they are looking to fill ASAP. If you're looking to volunteer, get in touch with GAAC. In addition, the board is also looking for more directors to join its team.

All registrations for programs must include a membership with Green Acres Art Centre. Membership gives you and/or your family access and reduced rates to all the programming, activities, camps and workshops throughout the year. Membership is due at the time of registration and is valid from Sept. 1 until Aug. 31. Membership forms can be found on the website or printed copies will be available at registration.

All memberships contribute a fundraiser fee in addition to membership and program fees. This fee is $100 for each program registered, up to a maximum fee of $200 per family. With your fundraiser fee, you will receive 10 (or 20) annual cash raffle tickets to sell, gift or keep.

"We understand registration fees may be difficult for families with limited budgets," said Knor. "So the Green Acres Art Centre is willing to accept payments for fees over $150. Please get in contact

Teulon on the road to create a secondary plan and review zoning bylaw

By Autumn Fehr

Recently, the Town of Teulon identified the need to create a secondary plan and update its zoning bylaw.

Teulon has not updated its zoning bylaws since December 2002 and council is finding the 20-year-old bylaws challenging for growth and change.

Issues with zoning laws regarding cannabis dispensaries, sea cans and new developments that don't have their own plans have brought council to their current decision — a thorough look at the entire plan to resolve zoning issues.

When the bylaws were established 20 years ago, no one envisioned the pended. In July the IERHA used paramedics to keep the Pine Falls ER open after an "exodus" of nurses.

"There's a reality we need to speak about. Some of you may be aware and maybe some of you not. On May 20 we really had an exodus of our nurses from Pine Falls," said Ellis.

As a result, the emergency department had to close. The IERHA was able to reopen the ER in mid-July with 30 paramedics, some from the IERHA and some from Winnipeg, she said. But about two weeks ago, Pine Falls lost some physicians and doesn't have enough — a minimum of six — to keep the ER open. Because the ER is heavily used, and First Nations in the area rely on it, the health authority is working on a solution.

"From July 18 until two weeks ago, there were over 700 patients that came through that emergency department that needed care," said Ellis. "What we're doing to offset that until we can stabilise a model that works is we extended primary care into the weekends and evenings. If somebody needs critical care, they're being transported by EMS."

The eastern half of the IERHA has three hospital ERs: Pine Falls, Pinawa and Beausejour. The ER availability schedule for Sept. 16-30 shows the Pinawa and Beausejour ERs having many days on which they're closed or offering limited hours of service. The Interlake has six hospital ERs, excluding Teulon's ER, which has been permanently closed.

- The money required for the construction of a clinical teaching unit in Selkirk has increased substantially. The unit would help in the efforts to recruit and retain physicians. The board overseeing the initiative was expected to fundraise $14 million in 2021, said Ellis, but "we're seeing significant increases in the costs of new builds." As of June 2022, the board is expected to raise over $22 million.

- The IERHA hired a new doctor, Dr. Joseph Ludwig, who will be working in the Gimli Medical Clinic.

- The COVID-19 outbreak on the medicine unit at Selkirk Regional Health Centre was declared over by the IERHA's medical officer of health Sept. 10. And the COVID outbreak on the Appleyard unit at Rosewood Lodge in Stonewall was also declared over Sept. 12.

A chance encounter with the new King

By Jennifer McFee

Sometimes you're just in the right place at the right time to experience an unplanned moment that you'll never forget.

That was the case for Janice Moeller, a senior producer of radio shows for CBC who originally hails from Teulon. By chance, she was on holidays in London when news broke of the Queen's death on Sept. 8 at the age of 96.

"I was actually on the Tube when the Queen died. We had heard the radio newscast at 6 local time on BBC4 that she was not well but was comfortable," she told the Tribune via email from London last week.

"We headed out as we had theatre tickets, and when the play started at 7:30, one of the actors came on stage and said that given the events of earlier today, they would begin the show with a minute of silence. My partner and I looked at each other, wondering if the Queen had passed away."

Since they had already turned their phones off for the production, they had to wait until intermission to confirm the information.

"When we left the theatre after the play, we were only a 15-minute walk from Buckingham Palace so we headed over. People were hurrying there — people of all ages, many with flowers," she said.

"There were lots of flowers already placed at the gate and people had lit candles. It looked quite beautiful with the light reflecting off the wet pavement as it had rained earlier."

The following day, Moeller returned to Buckingham Palace around noon

Animal rescue hosting open house fundraiser

By Ty Dilello

The Barefoot Ranch Horse Rescue and Sanctuary is hosting an open house on Sept. 24 from 2 to 5 p.m.

The ranch welcomes the public to visit its goats, lambs, pigs, ducks, geese and, of course, the horses and donkeys. In addition, there will be face painting, tarot readings, hotdogs and drinks for sale, pony rides, horse rides, vendors and a petting zoo.

"We will have apples and carrots to feed the animals and a whole lot of fun," said Sherri Anderson, president of The Barefoot Ranch. "This is our last open house of the year as the weather gets colder, so we need to focus on ensuring the animals and we are ready for winter."

All proceeds from the open house will go towards caring for these animals at the ranch.

"We are in the process of building one shelter and hope to build three more before winter hits us. That, of course, depends on the generosity of our guests and donors who can't make it out to events."

"Our goal here is to rehabilitate and rehome horses, but adoptions have been slow. These horses just need love and time, and they are just as valuable as any other horse out there."

This year has been a very busy one with The Barefoot Ranch rescuing over 50 horses so far. The ranch is also aware of another 16 that will be arriving prior to winter. They have also taken in nine goats, two lambs, five pigs, two geese and two ducks.

As you can imagine, feed, supplements, vet care and farrier work for that number of animals is quite expensive, so the ranch is looking to raise as much funds as possible through its upcoming open house.

Last weekend, The Barefoot Ranch attempted to rescue up to 20 horses that were running wild on First Nations land. The band is looking for help to remove these horses for their safety as well as the safety of the community.

"I'm not sure how it's going to go yet, but it is going to be a very expensive undertaking. We have several trucks and trailers headed there as

Manitoba Coin Club about to show you the money

Coin, Stamp & Collectibles Show coming to West St. Paul

By Patricia Barrett

The Manitoba Coin Club is going to show people the money in a few weeks when it hosts a coin, stamp and collectibles show in West St. Paul.

The club is inviting the public to bring in old or commemorative currency for assessment or just pop by to learn what currency collecting is all about and how it can literally pay.

Numismatist Larry Dalman, who is a club member, said people with historical or commemorative currency may be surprised to learn that it has value far beyond the numbers stamped on the face.

People who've inherited coin collections or have the odd old coin or paper bill might not know their value and will sometimes just want to get rid of them. Oftentimes, they'll take them to a bank.

"Banks will give them face value for every coin and bill they turn in. They don't care if a coin has silver content or what age it is," said Dalman, who

Reelin' it in for Lake Manitoba Narrows Game and Fish

By Autumn Fehr

Fishermen and fishing enthusiasts alike are getting ready to reel it in again in the heart of The Narrows.

The Walleye Classic is a catch-and-release derby that will take place at Narrows Sunset Lounge on Saturday, Sept. 24 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Hosted by the Lake Manitoba Narrows Game and Fish Association, proceeds from the derby allow the association to support future local events, provide scholarships and other programs that give back to the community and support the health of our natural resources.

This year, the Walleye Classic celebrates its 23rd annual event.

The goal of the event is to get people fishing and enjoying the lake.

"We do this for the community. It's just a way of getting together for a little competition to start with, to have some fishing and fun, with a dinner to go with it," said Dennis Giesbrecht, president of the Lake and Manitoba Narrows Game and Fish Association for the past six years.

"IT BRINGS THE WHOLE COMMUNITY TOGETHER. IT'S THE ONE THING THAT EVERYBODY IN THE COMMUNITY LOOKS FORWARD TO."

Following the derby, there will be a pig roast dinner from 5 until 7 p.m. for anglers (fish derby participants), and anyone else wanting to come for the dinner portion can purchase stand-alone tickets for $20.

Danny's Whole Hog is donating the meat for the pig roast, which they have continued to do for many years.

This year, they hope to raise enough money to put up a play structure in the area for kids, where the lodge is, close to the camping and cabin grounds, as right now there is nothing in that area for the kids to play on.

The cost for this project is estimated at approximately $2,000, said Giesbrecht.

Three years ago, the Walleye Classic raised $13,000 in two years from 2020 to 2021 for a new dock, he said.

Pre-registration can be done online at www.lmngf.ca/walleye-classic.

Registration can also be done at the type of land use or activity communities have today, which has created these issues.

Exactly 20 years later, the town has decided — out with the old and in with the new.

"It's an exciting project, and it will involve a lot of people in the community. The community will have the opportunity if they choose to participate, so that's a good thing. ... It's a significant undertaking, but we are looking forward to it," said Andrew Glassco, CAO of the Town of Teulon.

The new project consists of updating the existing bylaws and creating a secondary plan, a part of the council's strategic plan for 2020.

It will be put together in two documents but will be developed at the same time and used afterwards as a tool to guide future growth and public investment within the town.

"It can help attract other businesses to the community and attract residential development. ... It really will shape what the community will look like in the next number of years. We feel it is an advantage for the community to do this," said Glassco.

In June 2022, Teulon applied to the province for Manitoba's Building Sustainable Communities Program grant and was successful in their application and will receive $45,475 to cover 50 per cent of the funding for the project.

"It's 50 per cent funding, so that takes a lot of the burden off residents in Teulon. It allows us to do something a bit more comprehensive. Because of the funding, it gives us the opportunity to work with one of the larger planning firms in Manitoba, and it just allows better value for our dollar, the ratepayer. It's just in the best interest of the community," said Glassco.

Manitoba's Building Sustainable Communities Program helps build sustainable communities that thrive, providing Manitobans with a higher quality of life.

The remainder of the project's cost will be taken from the town's general reserve, as indicated in their 2022 financial plan.

The council sent out requests for proposals to various firms and after a month received four responses.

At the town's most recent council meeting on Sept. 13, they awarded the request for proposal to WSP Global Inc. for $89,864, including GST.

WSP is one of the largest planning firms in Manitoba.

Throughout the project's planning process — nine months to a year — a steering committee specifically built to work closely with the consultant team at WSP will give direction.

The project steering committee consists of the town of Teulon council, Andrew Glassco, chief administrative officer for the Town of Teulon; Eric Shaw, general manager of South Interlake Planning District; and Breanne Jack, planner with Community Planning Branch (Province of Manitoba).

During the lengthy process, the committee may request others to participate on an as-needed basis.

Throughout the project, many public hearings are scheduled to ensure different sectors of the community have a chance to give their input, as it is a key component of the project.

> KING, FROM PG. 11

I walked back to the front of the palace gates and looked for a spot that wasn't too busy to do my phone interview. There was a railing set up parallel to the palace gates. To the right of the main gates, I found a large space at that railing and walked up to it," she said.

"The people who were dropping off flowers were on the other side of that railing. It was about five people deep and was so crowded, I couldn't even see the flowers for people."

Around 1 p.m. London time, which is 7 a.m. in Winnipeg, the gun salute was still sounding in the background while the radio interview was underway.

While she was on air, Moeller noted that they had stopped the line of people dropping off flowers and began clearing people out of the area in front of the palace gates.

"Marcy said the King was boarding a plane and heading for London. When I finished my interview, which was probably about seven minutes long, I noticed that behind me, there was a crush of people," she said.

"If I had wanted to leave, I would have had a hard time as I was pretty crowded against the railing. Workers opened the two sets of palace gates I could see — the main gates to my left and a second set to my right. They started moving all the flowers."

Then a man in a suit with a headset came over and told the crowd that two people were making their way to the palace — two of the nicest people they would ever meet.

"He said they would be glad to see us, but we should not try to take selfies, we should put our phones away as they approached, and we should not try to hug them. I waited. Then a motorcade pulled up at the gates to my right," she said.

"Out stepped the King of England and the Queen Consort. They started greeting the people along the railing to my right. As he approached, and he was approaching quickly, I thought 'What am I going to say?' But all I could think was 'This man has just lost his mother — and I know what that feels like.'"

She'd already been thinking of her mom, Margaret Moeller, who had always been an admirer of the Queen. She treasured her extensive scrapbook brimming with newspaper clippings that dated back to before the coronation.

When Moeller's mom died more than a dozen years ago, the community came together to show their support. As a grieving daughter, Moeller is still touched by how much that support meant to her family. With that in mind, she understood some of the grief that Charles must be experiencing.

"As the King stepped in front of me, I extended my hand, he took it, and I looked at him and said 'I'm so sorry for your loss.' He said 'thank you' and was already moving down the line, but he looked back at me and spoke again. I have had a hard time remembering what he said, but I remember feeling what the British would call 'gobsmacked' by it," she recalled.

"He said something like 'You've made it a day to remember.' I had a sense that he truly appreciated all these people coming out to show their care for his mother, for him and his family."

Soon after, the Queen Consort came along the same path. Moeller shook her hand, saying "My condolences to your whole family" to Camilla.

"People around me were shouting things like 'God bless you, Camilla' and she looked at the crowd around me — and then looked back at me and said 'Thank you all for coming.'"

A few days later, Moeller paused for a moment to reflect on the unexpected connections she made that afternoon.

"I was standing on a platform in Wimbledon waiting for a train and thinking, 'I bet I'm the only one here who has met the new King,'" she said. "Just surreal."

Moeller returned to Manitoba on Monday, Sept. 19, the day of the Queen's funeral.

Molly is praising her new dentures for this reason

BY ELISHA VANDOR

Usually, I'm singing the praises of dental implant supported dentures and how they can help solve many normal denture issues that people experience; but today, I'm singing a different tune and going back to basics. I'm sure most of you can relate too, especially when I say, 'a quality denture that's made right can make a world of difference'. Our patient, Molly quickly learned the truth to that statement.

Molly wears a full set of dentures. When she came to see us, we could tell that she put a lot of miles on them. They were still doing her some justice, but she had compromised in some areas to make them work, specifically when it came to eating. When she came to see us for her initial consultation appointment, she mentioned that her dream was to eat tomatoes again. She says, "Before, with my old teeth I couldn't bite through a tomato. If I had a tomato sandwich or a hamburger with a tomato in it and bit into it, then the whole slice of tomato would come with it and of course drag the rest of the stuff too. You know, it's pretty embarrassing at a restaurant to have it flop all over you." Since this type of issue can only be corrected with new teeth, we both knew it was time for a new set.

As Molly was coming in for her appointments to make the new set of dentures, she kept her denture wish at the back of her mind, in high hopes that we could get her eating the difficult foods with dentures again. Well, it's been two weeks since she had her dentures and at her follow-up appointment she says, "you guys did it. I gotta tell you, I just gotta tell you! On the day when I got my new teeth I went home and made myself a tomato sandwich for supper. I took my first bite and I bit right through. After all this time, I knew this was important to me, but I didn't realize how important it was until I actually had that bite. I had a salad a couple days later and could chew the salad with my back teeth instead of mushing it together to swallow. I am really happy, really happy."

Of course, we had to ask Molly what her experience was like coming to our place since she was a first-time patient. She said, "When I was looking around for a Denturist, I found your website and thought, well that sounds really good, so I phoned. The information given on the phone to me was excellent and it made me feel very comfortable. The person who I was talking to was very friendly and very respectful. Each visit here is very welcoming and very friendly. I'm very confident now. Actually, I've had dentures for most of my life and when you get a new set they are glaring, you know?! People look at you like, what did you do to your teeth, but I've never had that with this set. They fit in so naturally and I just can't say it enough, I'm really happy, so thank-you. You've done a great job."

We want to thank Molly for sharing her story with us! We know that we can help you too. Consultations are always free. You can call anytime and we look forward to meeting you soon!

outside the province. Founded in 1954, the club provides numismatic education, hobby and fellowship. The members collect mostly Canadian and foreign currency, banking memorabilia and exonomia (tokens, souvenir medallions, encased coins, etc.) among other interests. All coin clubs in Canada fall under the Royal Canadian Numismatic Association.

The Manitoba club helps educate people on the value of their collections or individual coins and notes, sparks their interest in collecting and encourages them to preserve Canada's currency history.

Until 1908, when the Royal Canadian Mint was established in Ottawa, Canada had its money made in England and shipped across the Atlantic. The Ottawa mint now makes commemorative currency while the country's second mint, the Royal Canadian Mint in Winnipeg, makes circulating currency for Canada and other countries.

The Canadian government kept track of every single bill and coin made, but with so much currency being destroyed, there's no record of what has been taken out, said Dalman. Not knowing how many bills or coins have been destroyed makes it difficult for collectors to determine how valuable it is.

They do, however, have guides that rate bills and coins on things such as condition, colour, framing, rareness and even who signed bills.

Old bills that look as though they've been run over by a car compared to bills that look as though they were never circulated will naturally get different prices, said Dalman. A $2 bill, for instance, in mint condition might be worth $100.

"There are different coin books out there that will show you what coins and bills are worth, as well as websites (such as coinsandcanada.com), and they'll also show you how to grade your own coins and bills," said Dalman. "But if you want to get the real prices, a lot of coin collectors or people in numismatic pay money to professional companies throughout North America that will grade them."

For people considering taking their old currency to the bank or to companies that pay fair market value based on the weight of silver or gold in coins, Dalman said it could pay to first do some homework on your coins and bills or consult a coin club

The Stonewall Teulon Tribune member.

A bank will give you face value ($100) for 100 silver dollars. A company that pays based on weight will offer more but might overlook rare coins that could fetch a substantial amount of money.

"Let's say you take in 100 silver dollars [to a company] and depending on the percentage of silver they contain and price per ounce, they may give you about $1,400 to $1,600," he said. "You might be ecstatic, but if you've got a rare coin in there, that alone could be worth $200 to $500."

Dalman said an 1870 "shinplaster" (a paper bill worth 25 cents) is "very hard to find and very expensive." The 1965 silver dollar has five different variations, and some are more valuable than others. The 1954 "devil-faced" bills — bills that look as though there's a devil in the Queen's hair — are "worth a lot of money, especially in pristine condition."

"A 1954 $1,000 bill, if in good shape, might be worth $1,200. But if it has a devil's face on it, it's worth $4,000 to $5,000," said Dalman. "These are the kinds of things the Manitoba Coin Club and the Royal Canadian Numismatic Association are trying to get people to recognize."

Thursday, September 22, 2022 17

Commemorative currency, such as that issued in 1935 to recognize the 25th anniversary of King George VI on the throne, is very valuable. Members of the royal family — including Princess Elizabeth — were featured on bills printed only for a year.

And Dalman said there are specialty coins out there, including sports-themed coins with Canadian hockey teams on them, coins that depict historical events and coins with DC Comics, Remembrance Day, Disney and dinosaurs on them.

The upcoming Coin, Stamp & Collectibles Show will have Manitoba Coin Club members and dealers who will sit down with people and go over their currency. Anyone interested in joining the Manitoba Coin Club can fill out an application, which will be available at the show.

The show will be held on Oct. 1 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Oct. 2 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Sunova Recreation Centre, 8 Holland Rd. in West St. Paul. The $5 admission provides entry for both days.

The 50/50 will take place Friday night and all day Saturday, with approximately $2,000 being awarded to first place, depending on the number of participants, with 66 per cent going to the winner.

There are about 70 volunteers that come out for the day to help out with everything. A lot of people who help

Blue Jays 'stonewall' Sultans in WSBL final

By Brian Bowman

There's no quit in the Stonewall Blue Jays.

They proved that in Game 4 of their Winnipeg Senior Baseball League A Pool final against the Carillon Sultans on Sept. 13.

Trailing 9-1 in the third inning and then 10-8 going into the bottom of the sixth, the Blue Jays rallied for a thrilling 11-10 victory to win the best-of-five series 3-1.

What a great comeback.

"To be honest, I wasn't worried," said the Blue Jays' James Stolar. "That's what they call around the league getting stonewalled ... because we're pretty famous for doing that to teams. Giving up a seven or eight spot and being able to come back. Nobody on the bench was down or anything like that at any point in that game."

The Blue Jays' Zach Campbell came on in relief to pitch and threw very well for the win. He was also very good at the plate, said Stolar.

"If we're going to name an MVP for the final series it would be Zach Campbell," Stolar said. "Come finals, come playoffs, he's a real big gamer and he definitely helped the boys squeeze out a 'W'."

Stonewall defeated Carillon 8-3 in Game 3 of the series at Koskie Field on Sept. 12.

Scott Harris was on the hill for Stonewall and he, once again, was solid in throwing a lot of strikes. Chris Norquay came on in relief to shut down the Sultans.

Stonewall started the regular season strong before cooling off and finishing with a 13-8 record that placed them fourth out of the four-team A Pool.

"As soon as playoffs hit, we were able to get the bats alive and we obviously needed five wins to finish it off and we were able to get it," Stolar said.

Stolar wanted to give a big thank you out to Tracy Proctor for all of the work she does behind the scenes to help run the team.

"We definitely don't give her enough recognition. ... She gets this team going every year," he said.

By Jo-Anne Procter

Pickleball continues to gain popularity throughout the province, including right here in the Interlake. Stonewall hosted its second tournament Sept. 9-11 at the Sunova Curling Rink, with 212 players registered.

The three-day tournament included women, mixed and men's divisions with three age categories, under 55, 55-64 years and 65 years and over, and different skill levels.

Pickleball is similar to tennis but is played on a badminton-sized court (20' x 44'), and players use large paddles instead of racquets and hit a "wiffle ball" with holes in it.

The ball is served diagonally (starting with the right-hand service square), and points can only be scored by the side that serves.

Players on each side must let the ball bounce once before volleys are allowed, and there is a seven-foot no-volley zone on each side of the net, to prevent "spiking." The server continues to serve, alternating service courts, until he or she faults. The first side scoring eleven points and leading by at least two points wins. Pickleball can be played with singles or doubles.

It is estimated that 2,000 to 3,000 people currently enjoy the game in the province. It has become quite prominent in the 55-Plus crowd, and younger people are enjoying it too.

Contact the South Interlake 55 Plus for information on playing locally at 204-467-2582.

The Arborg Pickleball Club will host their 'Pickle Spiel' on Oct. 14-16. To enter or for more information email arborgpickleball@gmail.com

Weekend curling recap

By Ty Dilello

It was a busy weekend of curling as events featuring the game's top curlers took place across Canada.

The major event of the weekend on the World Curling Tour was the ATB Okotoks Classic, which had 24 men's teams competing for a purse of $50,000.

It was an all-Alberta final as Brendan Bottcher defeated Kevin Koe 3-2 in a very closely contested affair.

Winnipeg's Matt Dunstone (featuring Gimli's B.J. Neufeld and Winnipeg Beach's Colton Lott) had a great run on the weekend, advancing to the semi-final before losing to Bottcher.

Karsten Sturmay of Alberta (with East St. Paul's Kyle Doering at second) advanced to the quarterfinals through the C-Side, and it was there that their run also ended at the hands of the Bottcher rink.

Dunstone and Sturmay are now off to Fredericton, N.B., this week to compete in the first-ever PointsBet Invitational from Sept. 21 to 25. The event, which will be broadcast on TSN this week, will feature 16 of the top men's and women's teams in Canada playing off in a sudden-death single-elimination event, with the winners earning a cool $50,000.

The Mother Club Fall Classic in Winnipeg was held at the historic Granite Curling Club. The women's event had two-time Olympic gold medallist Kaitlyn Lawes of Winnipeg defeating Sarah Anderson of Minnesota by a 6-2 score in the final.

Team Abby Ackland with Marquette's Sara Oliver at second finished the round robin with a 3-1 record, before falling to Assiniboine Memorial's Beth Peterson 6-2 in the quarterfinals.

On the men's side, Ryan Wiebe of the Fort Rouge defeated Granite's Jordon McDonald in the final by a 5-4 scoreline.

Gimli's Steen Sigurdson participated in the event but finished out of the playoffs with an 0-4 record.

The local Manitoba Curling Tour circuit returns on Sept. 30 to Oct. 2 at the Atkins Curling Supplies Classic in Winnipeg at the Assiniboine Memorial Curling Club.

The Cargill Curling Training Centre MJCT Fall Spiel was also held last weekend in Morris and had many of the province's top juniors on display for the first time this season.

Winnipeg's Cheyenne Ehnes (featuring Stonewall's Autumn Good at second) fell in the final on the girls' side to Saskatchewan's Madison Kleiter 8-6.

Moosehorn's Tansy Tober went 3-1 in the round robin before losing a tie-breaker, while Altona's Dayna Wahl went 1-3 and missed playoffs.

Saskatchewan's Logan Ede defeated Virden's Jace Freeman by an 8-4 score in the boys' final.

U15 AAA Manitoba Female Hockey League to begin inaugural season

By Brian Bowman

A new U15 AAA Manitoba Female Hockey League will be hitting the ice this season.

The eight-team league will include the Central Plains Capitals, Eastman Selects, Westman Wildcats, Brandon Wheat Kings, Norman Wild, Parkland Rangers, Pembina Valley Hawks and the Yellowhead Chiefs.

"The boys have always had (a U15 AAA league) for decades but the girls have never had the opportunity to play in an organized league," said league president Dennis Park. "There has always been U15 AAA (female) teams across the province but they would just play in showcases and stuff like that. They never had their own league until now."

Park is hopeful that a team from Winnipeg and the Interlake will be formed for next season.

Manitoba already has a U18 AAA league and many girls from our province have gone on to play at the university level in Canada and the United States.

"The numbers for female hockey are growing substantially over the last several years," Park noted. "This will give the girls a chance to play at the highest level possible."

The league will begin Oct. 1 in Dauphin.

Georgia O'Neill led Interlake with two goals and an assist while Ireland Tymchak had a goal and two assists.

The Lightning's other goal was scored by Stewart.

Interlake head coach Bill Bram liked what he saw in the first two games.

"I'm excited. I have a lot of good skaters," said Bram last Thursday. "If you can skate now it's learning how to play together and learn the systems. The kids are a good group of kids and they're hard working. We're going to surprise some people."

Interlake will begin its regular season Oct. 1 when it plays the Pembina Valley Hawks in Morden.

The Lightning's home opener is Oct. 2 when they host the Yellowhead Chiefs in Stonewall. Game time is 2 p.m.

Gimli was 27 strokes better than the Stonewall Collegiate Rams' foursome of Ty Woods, Alex Myers, Rylan Slatcher and Cole Swanson.

Rounding out the top five were Riverton (Tytan Johnson, Brody Maxwell, Beau Webber, Landen Keller-Gislason - 336), Lake Manitoba (Jayden Edwards, Dodden Swan, DeShawn Swan - 352), and Arborg (Brody Barylski, Brandon Burak, Austin Loewen, Sawyer Zuk - 366). Vigfusson's 88 was the low score

Lundar's Madison Olafson had the low score with a 45 followed by Fidler (54) and Kirk (61).

The MHSAA golf provincials will take place this Friday in Carman.

Thunder clipped by Dauphin

By Brian Bowman

The Interlake Thunder was defeated 23-20 by the Dauphin Clippers in Rural Manitoba Football League action last Saturday afternoon.

"It was a great game," said Thunder head coach Mitch Obach. "I thought we played significantly better than the week before, which we also lost by three on the road. The outcome was unfortunate but I couldn't have asked for a better effort from the team. The guys really made a big jump this week. By all accounts, Dauphin is the team to beat in the league and we hung right with them on the road."

Offensively, Thunder quarterback Tucker Knutson was 7-for-10 passing for 60 yards. He also rushed eight times for 47 yards, which included a 12-yard touchdown.

Interlake quarterback Ben Cook was 8-for-12 passing for 118 yards. He threw a 50-yard TD to Dwight Bell.

"Ben came in, he's a Grade 9, and he had his first real action this season with us and he played really well," Obach said. "He had great poise and he looked a lot older than a Grade 9."

Lucas Kmet had 25 carries for 176 yards which included a seven-yard major.

"It was some hard running," Obach said. "That Dauphin defence was far better than anyone we had seen so far this year. He had to earn those yards. He had a lot of touches and kept grinding it out all day. We had a great game from him."

Defensively, Interlake's Blaze Benediktson finished the game with eight tackles, three assisted tackles and two pass knockdowns.

Jacob Naherney had eight tackles and two assists while Preston Vermette chipped in with six tackles and four assisted tackles.

It was a great effort by the Thunder defence.

"We kind of tinkered with our systems a bit and the new look worked for us against Dauphin," Obach said. "The (defence) had a pretty successful day and one of the touchdowns was after a turnover and they got the ball inside our 10-yard line to start the drive so that one's not really on the defence."

The Thunder will host the Falcons Football Club in an exhibition game this Friday at Stonewall Collegiate. Kickoff is 4:30 p.m.

It will be the first of three straight home games.

You Are Missed

A branch has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived. While I was strong.
I am counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly. Until the day comes we're together again."

OBITUARY

Evelyn Amy Waldbauer
June 18, 1925 – September 17, 2022

Evelyn peacefully passed away while in the comfort and caring hands of Tudor House Selkirk.

She will be lovingly remembered by daughter Barbara (Phillip Zoski); son Rod (Darlene), grandsons Jamie (Jennifer) and Cameron (Brooke), and great-grandchildren Keira, Brook, Grace, and Jackson.

Evie's early years were spent in Vankleek Hill and Hawkesbury, ON, with her parents, Margaret and Fredrick Bernicky and seven siblings. During the war her brother introduced her to a young soldier, Philip Waldbauer, from Killaly, SK. On New Year's Eve, 1943, they married, and lovingly enjoyed 67 years together until Phil's passing in 2011.

After the war they headed west living in Grandview, then 26 years in Benito, which she always referred to as "back home." Evie was a proud Avon representative travelling Swan Valley to see her many customers. She enjoyed curling, dancing and supporting community events. Mom loved to bake, cook, clean, and shop! They always took great pride in their yard and flowers, winning numerous awards. For many years camping and fishing trips were enjoyed. They sold their boat and toured MB and SK attending polka fests, making many new friends, known as "The Waltzing Waldbauers," with their extensive wardrobe of coordinated outfits.

In 2005 Phil and Evie moved to Farview Place in Teulon to be closer to family. New friends were made and good times enjoyed. Evie remained in her apartment until July of this year, proud to look after her own place. Residents would comment on her energy, comparing her to a humming bird fluttering around. She was independent thanks to the helpful people at Farview and the great service from businesses in town. Her days were often planned around the sports on TV, especially curling and Blue Jays games. Special events and family celebrations were always a highlight. Mom loved to be updated on what the family was doing, and cherished pictures, especially those of her great-grandchildren.

Respecting her wishes, cremation and a private interment will take place.

May the "Waltzing Waldbauers" be dancing again.

It is with a heavy heart that I announce the passing of my beloved husband, father to my son Ramsey, friend to so many.

A NOTE TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Due to the nature of this sale, we felt a brief explanation is essential.
At closing, 6 p.m. Sat. Oct. 1st we will tally the 20 days of paid sales and divide by 20 to get the average daily sale. The day which is closest to this daily average, without going over it, will be the day which ALL qualifying purchasers will receive their purchase amount back, taxes excluded.

In the case of credit card (Smitty's, Visa, Mastercard) purchases, we will issue a credit immediately.

Every item in stock will be included in the sale. No exceptions - clearance, damaged, discontinued, even new arrivals: furniture and appliances.

We would like to thank you for your support, especially in these challenging times. This is our opportunity to give back by awarding one whole day for free.
