Reminder of Remembrance

TRIBUNE PHOTO BY JO-ANNE PROCTER

The entrance to the Ascension Anglican Church in Stonewall is showered with love and remembrance this month. Parishioner Beth Litton has spent countless hours crocheting hundreds of poppies with her granddaughter Hanna Marshall, while enlisting the help of her daughters Sheryle Marshall and Shelley Proven to attach and hang the colourful display on the church. This year marks the 100th anniversary of the iconic poppy, which is an enduring symbol of remembrance. Pictured are Sheryle Marshall, left, and Shelley Proven, right.

Farm Credit Canada enhances patient care throughout the region

Submitted by IERHA

Recently, Interlake Eastern Health Foundation was gifted $2,000 from Farm Credit Canada. Of this money, $1,250 of the donation was for Stonewall Hospital to purchase an isolation cart and $750 for Eriksdale Hospital to purchase a pulse oximeter.

Farm Credit Canada is Canada's largest agricultural term lender. This organization's purpose is to enhance rural Canada by providing specialized and personalized financial services to farming operations, including family farms.

Kim Friesen, FCC relationship management associate says that community investment funding is one way that FCC is enriching the communities where we live and work.

"Our projects make positive changes in our communities. In particular, we work to reduce hunger, promote farm safety and through ag education partnerships, we promote agriculture as a vibrant, forward-looking industry. FCC was pleased to partner with the Interlake Eastern Health Foundation to provide funding for medical equipment needs at the Eriksdale and Stonewall hospitals," says Friesen.

Interlake Eastern Health Foundation executive director Pamela McCallum says the additional equipment will impact patients and staff in a positive way.

"The addition of much-needed equipment in Stonewall and Eriksdale will increase efficiency when caring for multiple patients within the facilities. We are honoured to partner with the Arborg FCC office on these donations which will enhance patient care in our region," says McCallum.

Interlake Eastern Health Foundation's mission is to raise funds that support health care in the Interlake-Eastern health region. For more information, visit www.ierhf.ca or contact Pamela McCallum, executive director of the Interlake Eastern Health Foundation, at 204-785-7044.

Stonewall Hydro building demolished earlier this month

By Jennifer McFee

Manitoba Hydro's Stonewall district office has been demolished.

Built in 1967, the building closed in 2014 as part of the rural consolidation of operating centres.

"Remaining on site is an active substation and equipment storage building used for local construction projects," said Manitoba Hydro media relations officer Bruce Owen.

"Due to condition of the building and its contents containing hazardous materials such as lead paint and asbestos, it was determined that the building could not be reused or sold."

All improvements to the Stonewall district office were suspended well in advance of the 2014 closure, Owen added. No significant upgrades were done to this building — including windows — in the years leading up to the closure or any time since then.

Demolition will be completed by the end of November.

SOUTH INTERLAKE PLANNING

Paying for Winter Storage? Make Sure It's Legal!

Did you know that storage operations are only allowed in certain areas of the R.M. of Rockwood, R.M. of Rosser, Stonewall and Teulon?

Before you pay to store personal items, equipment and/or vehicles on someone else's property, please make sure the storage operation is legally authorized by the South Interlake Planning District (SIPD). Unauthorized storage operations are subject to enforcement and any associated items, equipment and/or vehicles may be seized.

Zoning regulations help implement community goals and protect legally established businesses. In addition, permits help ensure that buildings meet the Manitoba Building Code, which increases the level of safety for everyone.

If you have questions about storage facilities in the planning district, please contact the SIPD office at 204-467-5587 and we'd be happy to assist you! More information can be found in the Zoning By-laws posted on our website: www.sipd.ca/p/municipal-zoning-by-laws

Giving Challenge November 15 - 21, 2021

Local musicians win country music awards

By Jennifer McFee

Local musicians have hit a high note by winning some sought-after music awards.

The Manitoba Country Music Association announced its 2021 awards at a live-streamed event on Nov. 6 that featured performances by several of the top acts.

Two Crows for Comfort, made up of Erin Corbin of Stonewall and Cory Sulyma of Stony Mountain, won the award in the category of Roots Artist, Duo or Group of the Year. They were up against Stonewall group Past the Perimeter, as well as Banned & Outlawed, Greg Arcade, Jaryn Friesen, Nelson Little and Quinton Blair.

"It was really exciting to win the award but, admittedly, it's a little strange because we went into it truly believing we wouldn't be selected, especially since we won the category at the last awards show in 2019," Sulyma said.

"The whole experience of the MC-MAs was super fun from getting to perform, spending the evening with family and friends watching the show and, of course, winning the award felt pretty cool."

- You plan to purchase a home, cottage, investment property in the next 12 months.
- Your current mortgage is coming up for renewal in the next 12 months.
- You want to make a change to your current mortgage to access equity, reduce interest costs or improve cashflow.

Stonewall Collegiate students receive academic awards

By Jo-Anne Procter

On Oct. 27, students in grades 9-11 from the 2020-2021 school year at Stonewall Collegiate were acknowledged for their academic achievements.

Students that achieved an average of 90 per cent or greater received a gold medal with their name, grade and school year inscribed on them. Students that had an average of 80 per cent or better received a merit award.

"Today, we have students who are receiving their first gold medal as a result of some very hard work," said principal Jason Cassils.

"And we also have some who are working on their perfect record and a complete set. Regardless of whether this is their first gold medal or one of several, this is an accomplishment to be proud of and we are extremely pleased to see the large numbers of names on the gold medalist list."

Cassils commended the 171 award winners.

"You deserve so much credit for finding ways to succeed in school and learn in various platforms. You tackled each and every challenge thrown at you," he said.

"We are so proud of your accomplishments."

He also thanked SCI staff for the hard work they put in during extremely difficult times this past year and to parents, guardians and family members for their support to students and staff.

Interlake School Division Excellence Medals were awarded to Grade 9 students Lexi Anderson-Schmidt, Melody Debreuil, Isabelle Desmarais, Charlotte Dix, Ethan Eberts, Hayley Emberly, Chace Fenning, Madelyn Fidler, Blake Good, Andrew Harold, Kaitlyn Hawryluk, Clara Hoff, Ashley Hudon, Cole Ives, Lexi Kennedy, Logan MacDuff, Logan Olson, Precious Paguio, Nicholas Palmer, Tanner Petri, Evan Reimer, Brady Resch, Carly Safiniuk, Spencer Schaeffer, Trisha Selby, Austin Unger, Shaelynn Wait and Hannah Walton.

Grade 10 students: Daryn Bremner, Jayla Butcher, Reid Byle, Rylee Cool, Holly Cornwell, Reese Deprez, Nyah Duguid, Brooke Farmer, Ava Farthing, Mikala Fingas, Gillian Gesell, Wallace Glaspey, Landon Godin, Kaitlyn Greigson, Vance Hatcher, Grace Hume, Cassidy Jacobson, Lucas Joynt, Shelby Joynt, Torrie Mackenzie, Madison McRae, Jack Murphy, Ava Pool, Caralyn Safiniuk, Sidney Schaeffer, Nadia Schultz, Alyssa Selby, Dexter Sigurdson, Rylan Slatcher, Chelsea Snively, Kaylee Steen, Kyra Swanson, Hayden Turner, Sara Vieville, Tyra Waldner and Ethan Wong.

Grade 11 students: Avery Godin, Abigail Highmoor, Sierra Kennedy, Emerson McAuley, Kalin McGuirk, Braxtyn Ollson and Sarah Shewchuk.

Stonewall council news in brief

By Jennifer McFee

At the Nov. 3 Stonewall council meeting, council passed second and third readings of a bylaw to establish new water and wastewater rates, as well as to regulate fees and licensing for septic haulers for the Town of Stonewall's water and wastewater utility.

According to a Public Utility Board order dated Oct. 27, the revised water and wastewater rates will be effective Jan. 1, 2022, with a quarterly service charge of $22.50 plus $0.95 per cubic metre of water and $0.83 per cubic metre of wastewater.

For water and wastewater customers, the minimum quarterly charge will be $46.78 based on 13.64 cubic metres. For wastewater-only customers, the minimum quarterly charge will be $66.60 based on 53.13 cubic metres. Wastewater disposal tipping fees will be $4.10 per cubic metre, which will be charged based on the vehicle tank capacity at the time of licensing.

The current rates came into effect Jan. 1, 2021, and the town applied for revised rates to provide for anticipated increases due to inflation for the future operation of the utility. Customers had the chance to provide comments to both the town and the Public Utilities Board when the public notice of application was issued on Sept. 1. Nobody provided any feedback.

According to the Public Utility Board, utilities should maintain a minimum working capital surplus of 20 per cent, and Stonewall's utility currently meets this target.

The town will need to review the water and wastewater rates again by June 30, 2023.

The Public Utilities Board order is posted on the Town of Stonewall's website at www.stonewall.ca.

In other council news:

- Coun. Jackie Luellman has been appointed as the deputy mayor for the Town of Stonewall.

- The Town of Stonewall will apply for funding through the provincial government's municipal enforcement support program, which would allow the town to get third-party contractors to scan COVID-19 immunization card QR codes at town facilities to comply with public health orders. COVID-19 has had a negative financial impact on the town, which means there's no capacity within existing budgets to increase enforcement capacity.

NACI recommends third dose of COVID mRNA vaccine for adults 70-79, 80 and older

By Patricia Barrett

Because of declining protection against acquiring a COVID-19 infection in fully vaccinated people, Canada's National Advisory Committee on Immunization (NACI) is broadening the scope of who is eligible to receive a third dose of vaccine.

NACI's "Interim guidance on booster COVID-19 vaccine doses in Canada," released Oct. 29, recommends third doses of an COVID mRNA vaccine — Moderna's Spikevax vaccine or Pfizer-BioNTech's Comirnaty vaccine — be given to a wider subset of the population, including seniors and those who had received vaccines developed by Oxford-AstraZeneca and Janssen (Johnson & Johnson).

During a news conference last Friday, Canada's deputy chief public health officer Dr. Howard Njoo said there's evidence that COVID vaccines' effectiveness against infection may decrease over time.

"At this time, NACI is recommending a booster dose for some populations at highest risk of severe illness and waning protection following their primary series [of vaccination]. Specifically, NACI has expanded their late-September recommendation — that adults in long-term care or other congregate care settings should be offered a booster dose of an mRNA COVID-19 vaccine — to include seniors 80 years and older," said Njoo speaking in French.

"Additionally, NACI recommends some other key populations, who may be at increased risk of severe illness or at increased risk of lower protection over time and who are essential for maintaining health system capacity, may be offered a booster dose of an mRNA COVID-19 vaccine at least six months after completing the primary series."

In addition to those 80 and older and long-term care patients, Njoo said those eligible for third doses include adults aged 70-79 years, people who received two doses of the AstraZeneca viral vector vaccine or one dose of the Janssen (Johnson & Johnson) viral vector vaccine, adults in or from First Nations, Inuit and Métis communities and frontline health-care workers.

Njoo said over 5.5 million adults and youth in Canada are not yet fully vaccinated, and a key focus of immunization efforts is to have more people completing a two-dose vaccination series.

"This is even more important as we head into respiratory infection season," said Njoo.

He recommended that the public continue to wear face masks, wash or disinfect their hands, increase ventilation and stay home and away from others if symptoms develop. This will help protect other people and the health-care system throughout the winter. He also encouraged the public to plan "safer social events."

Canada's chief public health officer Dr. Theresa Tam was asked whether the government will have to re-define the meaning of being fully vaccinated in light of the third-dose offering.

"Right now, having had a full primary series of vaccination is considered fully vaccinated," said Tam. "We are not currently considering the need for the additional shot of [a] booster for the definition of fully vaccinated for the purposes of federal requirements at this time. But, of course, we will keep reviewing the evidence and requirements."

Fully vaccinated people are at a lower risk of developing a serious COVID illness, needing hospital care or dying from the virus than unvaccinated people are. But the vaccines' protection against infection is waning, and that can contribute to increased transmission rates, says NACI's updated interim guidance document.

"COVID-19 vaccines have played a vital role in the response and have been shown to be very effective against symptomatic laboratory confirmed SARS-CoV-2 infection, severe disease, hospitalization, and death from COVID-19," said NACI. "Unfortunately, the COVID-19 pandemic is ongoing and continues to cause significant morbidity and mortality, as well as social and economic disruption in Canada and worldwide (including impacts on health system capacity)."

That's why the advisory committee is recommending a third dose "to obtain more durable protection in some populations."

NACI said it examined real-world data from Israel which suggests a booster dose provides "good short-term effectiveness" against infection and has a safety profile that's "comparable to that observed after the second dose of the vaccine."

There is no evidence to date, said NACI, about waning protection against "severe disease" in the Canadian general population who've been fully vaccinated.

The advisory committee will continue to monitor emerging scientific data on how best to use COVID vaccines, as well as examine important differences between a primary series of vaccination (to establish strong immune memory) and a booster (to stimulate the memory response once protection has truly waned).

Low vaccination, high test positivity rates in Southern Health

By Ashleigh Viveiros

The Southern Health region's low vaccination uptake is leading to some sobering numbers.

Last Friday, public health officials for the first time released the COVID-19 test positivity rates for all five Manitoba health regions.

Southern Health was seeing a five-day test positivity rate of 14.5 per cent that week, well above the 9.5 per cent being seen in the Northern health region, 5.3 in Interlake/Eastern, 4.8 in Prairie Mountain, and two per cent in Winnipeg.

At 68.4 per cent, Southern Health's vaccination rate is the lowest in the province by a wide margin the next lowest is Prairie Mountain at 81.7 per cent.

As of Monday, Southern Health accounted for 439 of Manitoba's 1,377 active COVID-19 cases — over 30 per cent — and nearly half of all the new cases reported over the past week, despite only having about 15 per cent of the province's population.

Of the 141 Manitobans hospitalized due to COVID-19 on Monday, 62 are from Southern Health. The region also accounts for 15 out of the 26 people currently in ICU due to the virus.

"We are monitoring the situation in Southern Health, as we are monitoring the situation throughout the province," deputy chief provincial public health officer Dr. Jazz Atwal said at a press conference last Wednesday. "We're looking to see if there's anything else we can do from a measures perspective and recommendations to government related to Southern Health as well."

Currently, the bulk of the Southern Health region has more restrictive capacity limits in retail stores (50 per cent) compared to the rest of the province, but no other extra restrictions.

Atwal said they're looking closely at what the picture might look like across the province in the weeks ahead but could give no firm details on what, if any, further restrictions might be on the horizon.

"We're looking at where we anticipate cases to be over the next one to six weeks' time and also where hospitalizations and acute care capacity requirements will be over that time," he said. "So we're taking in a lot of information right now, we're synthesizing it, and we're going to look at seeing what else we can do from a public health perspective in those locations."

When it comes to reaching out to communities in Southern Health, Atwal said they plan to continue working with local leaders to help educate people about the vaccine's efficacy and alleviate concerns they may have about its safety.

"The vaccine has proven quite powerful in preventing cases and also in preventing those severe outcomes," he stressed.

Manitoba as a whole on Monday saw its largest daily increase in new infections since June, with 156 new cases. Fifty-six of those were in Southern Health.

Across Manitoba, unvaccinated or partially vaccinated people make up about 60 per cent of active COVID-19 patients in hospital and 89 per cent of those in ICU.

Interlake-Eastern reported nine new cases on Monday bringing the total of active cases to 129. Nine active hospitalization cases with three in ICU. To date we have had 55 deaths from our region.

Active cases by district: Arborg/Riverton, two; Beausejour, six; Eriskdale/Ashern, seven; Fisher/Peguis, six; Gimli, one; Northern Remote, 25; Pinawa/Lac du Bonnet, three; Selkirk, six; Springfield, 27; St. Clements, four; St. Laurent, seven; Stonewall/Teulon, 29; Unknown, four; and St. Andrews, two. Powerview/Pine Falls and Whiteshell had zero.

Peace on Earth

The other day, my wife put a poppy on the kitchen counter and said, "It's time to start wearing this again."

I'm glad she took the initiative to do so because at my advanced age, I would've remembered about the day after Remembrance Day.

I wear a poppy because I believe in peace on earth. Those were the words that the angels said to the shepherds near Bethlehem that first Christmas Eve: "Glory to God in the highest, and on peace on earth, goodwill toward men!" Personally, it is my great desire to see that peace on earth.

Yet, sadly, there is precious little peace on earth today. There are currently around 40 ongoing wars and conflicts in the world today, with Afghanistan, Yemen and Sudan/Ethiopia each having over 10,000 direct conflict deaths. Since the Second World War, there have been some 250 major wars in which over 50 million people have been killed, tens of millions made homeless, and countless millions injured and bereaved.

Yet an even greater concern I see today is a growing lack of personal peace. People are wrestling with an emptiness, a restlessness, an unhappiness at the core of their beings. Indeed, you can attribute conflict, where among nations or individuals or within individuals, to this dissatisfaction within. As the Bible says, "What causes fights and quarrels among you? Don't they come from your desires that battle within you?" (James 4:1)

To those who would ask, "Why do I feel so empty? So unfulfilled?", Blaise Pascal's statement so clearly answers it: "There is within every person a God-shaped vacuum and only God Himself can fill it. ... You see, you need God in your life for you to experience personal peace."

And if the world were filled with people who knew the personal peace that comes from having the emptiness within filled by their Creator, I suggest to you that we would also have world peace.

This Remembrance Day, my prayer is that the Christmas angel's wish for "peace on earth" would become reality in every heart reading this column.

The Teulon Minor Hockey Association is disputing a bill sent by the town of Teulon for cancelling ice time.

Teulon Minor Hockey booked ice time at the Teulon-Rockwood Arena for a game on Oct. 31 at 9 a.m. On Oct. 30, Teulon Minor Hockey was informed that the opposing hockey club had a few cases of COVID-19.

"All hockey organizations are being very careful with COVID-19," said Kyle Willis, vice-president of Teulon Minor Hockey.

Teulon Minor Hockey president Derek Miller and other volunteers contacted players' parents to tell them the game was cancelled on Oct. 30. A volunteer also emailed the town's ice scheduler around 4:30 p.m. on Oct. 30 that the game was cancelled because of COVID-19 cases.

"At the Sept. 2 meeting, we were told very black and white that we are to email the town of Teulon regarding ice bookings and cancellations," said Willis.

Miller received a text message from an arena employee on Oct. 31 around 9 a.m. asking why the team wasn't at the rink. Miller explained the game was cancelled, and he assumed the town would have passed the message to arena staff.

"We could have told the maintenance superintendent that the game was cancelled, but that was not the chain of command that we were told," said Willis.

Teulon Minor Hockey received a bill from the town on Nov. 1 for around $180 to cover the cost of arena staff scheduled to work Oct. 31 and the ice rental fee.

"We're not going to pay this bill under any circumstances. It's COVID. Games are going to get cancelled. It's up to (the town) to check their email," said Willis.

Willis said Teulon Minor Hockey was told the protocol to cancel ice time with the town was to send an email to the ice scheduler. Teulon CAO Andrew Glassco disagrees.

All booking processes with the town are the same as they were with the recently dissolved recreation commission, said Glassco. The only change is organizations book facilities with a town administrator instead of a recreation commission representative.

The administrator in charge of booking the ice works part-time from Monday to Friday, four hours a day.

"There's never been a problem for the past three years," said Glassco. "And now, all of a sudden, there's a change of just who they report to. ... But none of the practices of renting ice has changed."

Miller is expected to inform the arena superintendent when games are cancelled because Miller should be aware that the town's administrator doesn't work on weekends.

"We felt administratively that Minor Hockey would be on the hook for the hour of unused ice, the cost of the (COVID-19 vaccination) verification worker and two staff members," said Glassco.

"The ratepayers are picking up the tab, and we want to make sure that the kids have an opportunity to access and utilize our facilities."

As of Nov. 4, the Town of Teulon had not received a complaint from Teulon Minor Hockey about the $180 bill.

"They can always come directly to council as a delegation to challenge or speak with council directly," said Glassco.

This is the second bill from the town Teulon Minor Hockey has disagreed with. The first came after a miscommunication about the arena's canteen rental fee.

commission waived the rental fee for the canteen for the last hockey season because of COVID-19 disruptions. The Town of Teulon says they were unaware of the fee being waived and sent Teulon Minor Hockey a bill for $3,100 in August.

Teulon Minor Hockey sent a letter to the town letting them know they weren't going to pay the bill. The town cancelled the bill and sent another for $865.25 to cover the cost of renting the canteen for three months because Teulon Minor Hockey did not remove their supplies from the canteen from April to June.

"As a board, we said no, we're not paying that either. Under no premise are we paying that amount of money for a freezer and a cooler left on," said Willis.

Teulon Minor Hockey brought the $865.25 bill to the town council on Oct. 12, saying in previous years they were not expected to clear their supplies from the canteen. Council decided to waive the fee.

"We're frustrated. We don't know where to go from here," said Willis.

"We just want to be able to have an open conversation with (the town) and be able to run things smoothly," said Miller.

Former Teulon mayor insists on lower taxes

By Nicole Brownlee

Former Town of Teulon mayor Ted Hodgkinson is looking for change.

Hodgkinson released a letter and a petition the week of Nov. 1, calling for the amalgamation of Teulon with the RM of Rockwood.

"If you agree that now is the time to look at the benefits of amalgamating with our neighbours and see the benefits that a combined administration can offer (lower taxes) ... then please take the time to lend your name to this proposal," said Hodgkinson in his letter.

Families are spread between communities surrounding Teulon, and several services like recreation facilities, personal care homes and schools are shared between the town and the RM of Rockwood, said Hodgkinson. Combining the communities would be beneficial to lowering residents' taxes and developing Teulon.

"Our tax rate is at a ridiculous level. It's gone up since the new council has taken over," said Hodgkinson.

"The higher the taxes, the less development you're going to have. It drives people away. Taxes are a big thing in people's consideration of where they're building, where they're going to develop or where they're going to live."

Mayor Anna Pazdzierski was elected in October 2019. The total municipal mill rate increased from 15.723 in 2020 to 17.415 in 2021.

In an interview in August, Pazdzierski said taxes increased because of changes to the provincial seniors and education tax rebates.

"This year (the province) removed all of that, so nobody gets anything," said Pazdzierski. "For years, we've gotten a $700 rebate, and all of a sudden we've got nothing."

Hodgkinson hopes his petition will encourage the town to reduce property taxes.

To learn more about Ted Hodgkinson's petition, email him at whitstar@mts.net.

Dynacare offering free blood sugar testing

By Lorne Stelmach

A special campaign on now in conjunction with Diabetes Awareness Month is offering free testing while also raising awareness of the risk factors associated especially with Type 2 diabetes.

Dynacare and Diabetes Canada have teamed up for a fourth year to offer free testing throughout November as part of the province's largest diabetes wellness initiative.

"This is a great complement to our campaign ... and we really need to raise the awareness," said Andrea Kwasnicki, Diabetes Canada regional director for Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Nunavut. "We have that campaign running right now so anybody can go and have their test."

Kwasnicki joined Manitoba Health Minister Audrey Gordon and Dynacare's chief scientific officer Dr. Jenisa Naidoo for the campaign kick-off Nov. 3 in Winnipeg. There was on-site A1C (blood sugar) testing open to the public followed by a panel discussion featuring nurse consultant in diabetes management and educator Lori Berard.

Through the remainder of the month, free A1C testing is being done at all Dynacare locations, including Stonewall. Tests are being offered for free to at-risk Manitobans at no cost to the province. At-risk groups include, but are not limited to, people who are overweight, over 40 or of Indigenous, African or Asian descent.

Dynacare will donate $0.50 to Diabetes Canada for every A1C test in November up to $25,000.

"On our website, there's also a risk assessment that people can do. It's a self-administered self-risk test," noted Kwasnicki. "We encourage them to go to their family doctor and ask for a requisition; however, we do have some pre-signed requisitions that will be available at the Dynacare labs."

"Diabetes is a serious public health concern in Manitoba," said Dr. Naidoo. "We are proud to use diabetes awareness month to give Manitobans the tools they need to prevent or treat Type 2 diabetes."

Local Christmas cheerboard gears up for busy holiday season

By Jennifer McFee

The holiday season is approaching quickly, which can be a joyful time for some but a stressful time for others.

If you or someone you know might need a Christmas hamper, you can order one from the Stonewall and District Christmas Cheerboard from Nov. 15 to Dec. 10. Requests for hampers need to be made every year, even if a hamper was received in previous years, because lists aren't carried over.

Secretary-treasurer Nancy Hoff explained that the organization usually provides about 100 families in the areas of Stonewall, Argyle, Warren, Balmoral, Rosser and Marquette.

Due to the pandemic, they are expecting to see an increase in demand this Christmas.

"This year for the food hampers, people will receive a turkey or ham, gift card to Family Foods and other foods donated," she said.

"Present hampers for the children include mitts, toques, pyjamas, toys, school supplies, books and so on, depending on supply."

For those who would like to help, the local Christmas Cheerboard is accepting new or unused presents, as well as monetary donations for food.

"We prefer to accept monetary donations instead of food this year," Hoff said.

"For gifts, we are especially short on toys for boys and girls aged eight and up, as well as teddy bears."

Toys and presents can be dropped off at CIBC, while monetary donations can be made in person at Sunova Credit Union, by e-transfer to stonewallcheerboard@gmail.com or by mail to Box 1977, Stonewall, MB, R0C 2Z0.

Donation receipts will be provided for donations of $20 or more, as long as the donor's name and address are provided.

These hampers can make a huge difference for many community members during the holidays, Hoff noted.

"They bring joy to families and take some of the stress off people at the holiday time," she said. "It lets them enjoy the holidays."

She also expressed gratitude for all the contributions over the years that have made this initiative possible.

"Our communities who donate have been so generous in the past," she said, "and we are lucky to live in such a great giving area."

To order a hamper from Stonewall and District Christmas Cheerboard, call 204-467-7370.

Hamper pickup will be available on Dec. 18.

RM of Rosser addresses safe rehabilitation of quarry

By Jennifer McFee

The RM of Rosser has completed its due diligence to ensure that no contaminated material was recently deposited into the former quarry lands off Dorsey Road near the Rosser Cemetery.

"We were made aware that there was dumping of unknown substances in a local quarry. As we are dedicated to the protection of ground water, soil and habitat, we placed a cease work order on the operation until we could determine what was being dumped. We asked the province to investigate the waste and we pursued our own testing as well," said Rosser Reeve Frances Smee.

"Tests have shown that the substances are not toxic and are being used to rehabilitate the quarry. But it has made council aware that we need to strengthen our bylaws to protect Rosser from becoming a possible dumping ground for other municipalities. We don't want to risk a repeat of what happened in Stony Mountain, which unfortunately caused their groundwater to be permanently affected."

The report concludes that the dumped material appears to be fine-textured clay with some silt, trace sand and gravel. Organic matter in the form of twigs and rootlets are also thoroughly mixed into the dumped material.

The municipality is in the middle of solidifying an agreement and is not able to identify the hauling company at this time. The landowner is not the company that is doing the hauling.

A notice posted on the RM of Rosser website (www.rmofrosser.com) states that the municipality is working with the owner to finalize a plan for the safe rehabilitation. In addition, the RM advised those involved in the rehabilitation operation to be cognizant of the cemetery and the grass areas off the roadway to make sure that trucks minimize any damage.

In other council news:

- During a special meeting on Nov. 4, Rosser council approved the expansion proposal for the Redboine Watershed District to include municipal participation. The RM of Rosser has met with the provincial government regarding the expansion of the Redboine Watershed District to include the RMs of Headingley, Macdonald, Morris, Portage la Prairie, Rockwood, Rosser, St. Francois Xavier and Woodlands, as well as the City of Portage la Prairie. The province provided a proposal for a watershed-based approach to water management in Manitoba, with additional municipal participation for the Redboine Watershed District.

- Council granted authorization for a specific local hauler to use a defined haul route from Lilyfield Quarry to specific local sites within the area of the quarry. The haul route goes west on Road 68N, north on Summit Road, East on Road 70N and south on Sturgeon Road.

- Plans are underway for the new Dorsey to Wash'ake Mayzoon Hydro transmission line. Manitoba Hydro is planning to build a new 230- kV transmission line starting at Dorsey Converter Station and ending at the proposed Wash'ake Mayzoon Station. As part of Manitoba Hydro's PACE project, this new electrical station and transmission line aims to increase system capacity to meet the area's increasing electricity needs while also enhancing reliability for customers in Portage la Prairie and surrounding areas.

Upcoming virtual information sessions are scheduled for Nov. 10 at noon, Nov. 16 at 7 p.m. and Nov. 17 at noon. To register, email LEAproj-ects@hydro.mb.ca or call 1-877-343-1631. An online survey is posted at www.hydro.mb.ca/pace for anyone who would like to provide feedback about the proposed alternative route segments. The survey closes on Dec. 1. More information is posted on the RM of Rosser website.

Lest we forget

By Jennifer McFee

Remembrance was on the minds of students at Stony Mountain School as they learned about the significance of Nov. 11.

Acting principal Bill Olson explained that the Grade 3/4 cohort recently walked down to the cenotaph to hang wooden poppies from the fences.

"The hanging of the wooden poppies was well received by the community, and the first year we were given permission to hang them at the cenotaph," Olson said.

"It shows our community that we as a school appreciate the service offered by our veterans and adds an element to the cenotaph unique to Stony Mountain."

A Grade 6 to 8 woodworking class made the wooden poppies about five years ago, he added.

"It was a way for the students in the class to develop woodworking and painting skills," he said, "as well as be part of a group of young people who helped to develop a way for Stony Mountain School to pay respect to the military personnel who served our country."

Last week's initiative had an impact on the current Stony Mountain students as well.

"The Grade 3/4 cohort was chosen because they are at an age where learning about the subject of military service and sacrifices of our major war veterans becomes a little more understandable," Olson said.

"The students very much so understand the significance. We had a brief sharing talk prior to the hanging of the poppies. Many students shared stories of relatives who have served in the military. One student gave a very detailed explanation of what the poppy symbolizes."

Olson also shared a heartfelt message for Remembrance Day — and every day.

"Stony Mountain sincerely thanks all the brave people who have served and continue to serve our country."

Retired minister remembers his time in the Navy

By Nicole Brownlee

From Alberta to the sea to San Diego, the Royal Canadian Navy took Leonard Orcheski to unexpected places.

Orcheski said he always wanted to join the Navy. Growing up, he was a part of the Sea Cadet program in his hometown Wainwright, Alta.

"In 1971, I was the top cadet in Canada," said Orcheski.

With his honoured title under his belt, Orcheski set off to join the Navy in 1972.

"I was a farm boy from Alberta going out to sea," said Orcheski.

Over the next 24 years, Orcheski started training as an ordinary seaman and retired as a lieutenant commander. He worked across the country from east-west inshore and sea postings and across the globe.

"Join the Navy and see the world, they say," said Orcheski.

He recalls sailing near Norway, tracking a Russian squadron.

"I got to see a lot of the world in the navy," said Orcheski. "Seventy per cent of the world is water. So, I got to see a lot of water."

At one point while serving, Orcheski was grouped with 53 sailors sleeping in bunks stacked in threes.

"As the junior guy, I got a bunk next to the deckhead, in other words, the top bunk," said Orcheski.

"You got used to the noise of people climbing out of their bunks."

Leonard and Linda Orcheski on his ordination into the United Church in 2000.

While he remembers the meals being diverse and generally good, learning to manage seasickness was an unexpected challenge.

"If the seas were rough, you soon learned what foods calmed your stomach and those that didn't," said Orcheski.

"Having experienced seasickness, I wouldn't wish it on my best enemy."

He also served on the HMCS Cormorant, an Italian fishing vessel the navy converted to diving support.

"We got some 600 feet in the water and chased the fish that were hanging around the bottom," recalled Orcheski.

Orcheski with his parents.

The Cormorant was also the first ship Navy women were allowed to serve in.

Orcheski spent three years in Ottawa working under the chief of Defence. The morning meetings held by the Defence chief stand out in Orcheski's memory.

"There was a team of us. I was just one of the worker bees," said Orcheski. "We did have a meeting every morning, and then someone would be on call for the night. It kept us pretty busy."

With the help of an exchange program, Orcheski travelled to San Diego to teach with the U.S. Navy for three years before travelling to Halifax to leave the Navy in 1996.

"I enjoy teaching," said Orcheski. "In the States, their training tools were a lot more sophisticated than ours. They had mock-ups of ships so we could put whole teams in, and it almost felt like you were out at sea."

While serving in the navy, Oracheski said he felt the ministry calling him.

"It was something I had to do."

Oracheski spent seven years in Nova Scotia after being ordained by the United Church in 2000.

"I had five churches to look after," said Oracheski.

"Many good memories were made during those very busy seven years."

Oracheski and his wife Linda moved to Stonewall to be closer to their daughter and her family, who lived in Winnipeg. The Navy veteran was the minister for the Stonewall United Church for around seven years before retiring.

"There are a good bunch of people here. It's a nice community," said Oracheski. "We really enjoy living here."

Oracheski, 68, is the poppy chair for the Stonewall Legion. He also served as chaplain for 10 years.

Stonewall Legion president Tim Williams has been working with Oracheski for a number of years.

"He's always a pleasure to work with and always fun," said Williams. "There's never not a laugh with him."

3 ways to support Canada's veterans year-round

On Remembrance Day, Canadians across the country commemorate the brave men and women who died in the line of duty as well as those who currently serve in the Armed Forces.

However, your recognition doesn't have to be limited to Nov. 11. Here are three ways you can support Canadian veterans year-round.

1. Donate to a reputable charity

There are a number of charities, including the Poppy Fund,

VETS Canada and Wounded Warriors Canada, doing critical work to empower and support veterans from coast to coast. Donating even a small amount to a reputable organization can help improve the circumstances of those who risked their lives for their country.

2. Volunteer at a Royal Canadian Legion

There are more than 1,300 legion branches across the country. As

> SUPPORT, FROM PG. 15

Canada's largest veteran service organization, the Royal Canadian Legion (RCL) offers outreach and assistance programs for veterans and their families as well as community services and support. Volunteering at your local legion branch is a great way to make a real difference in the lives of those who served.

3. Visit a veteran in your community

Veteran Affairs Canada (VAC), in collaboration with the RCL, runs an initiative that facilitates face-to-face visits with veterans in retirement and long-term care facilities. These visits provide social interaction and a sense of community to individuals who may not otherwise receive many visitors. Spending time with a veteran can have a major impact on their life as well as your own.

This Remembrance Day, know that Canadian veterans need your help year-round, and consider taking steps to offer your support.

Movember draws attention to men's health topics

By Jennifer McFee

This year's Movember initiative is well underway in an effort to bolster awareness and raise funds for men's health.

Since its humble beginnings in Australia in 2003, this moustache-growing charity event has engaged five million participants around the world. The initiative takes place each November when Mo Bros and Mo Sisters can sign up to help out. The men can endeavour to grow a moustache, while Mo Sisters can walk or run 60 kilometres throughout the month, host a Mo-moment gathering or create their own challenge.

Funds raised for Movember go towards men's health projects that focus on the key areas of mental health and suicide prevention, prostate cancer and testicular cancer.

Locally, school board chair Alan Campbell is participating for the first time. Over the years, he has been happy to donate through friends and colleagues who embraced the cause.

"I think this year, perhaps more than ever before, we need to be more aware of the mental and physical health challenges being faced by our friends and family. Movember focuses on raising awareness around men's mental health challenges as well as the prevalence (yet relatively low awareness) of prostate and testicular cancer," he said.

"As we try to move forward from the COVID-19 pandemic, it is beneficial for everyone if we raise awareness of the importance of mental health supports, and as our health-care system struggles to catch up, the potential impact of delayed screening for, and diagnoses of, various forms of cancer. If my small contribution can help, then why not?"

Campbell notes an alarming statistic from the Movember website that globally, on average, one man dies of suicide every minute of every day.

"Like many people, my mental health has struggled a bit throughout the pandemic — but I'm blessed to have the support of family and friends and also an awareness of where to go for help if that is what's needed," he said.

"Sadly, there are many people who don't have access or the guidance from others to get them to the mental health supports they need. For far too many, the incredible efforts and interventions of family and friends and professionals still aren't enough, and they tragically end their life by suicide."

cer and testicular cancer are not easy topics to talk about, he added.

"The stigma associated with them actually makes them more fatal — either because someone may be unwilling to ask for help or uncomfortable about getting screened when something doesn't seem right," Campbell said.

MB Farm Women's Conference sessions online next week

Zoom presentations open to all Nov. 15, 17

By Ashleigh Viveiros

The Manitoba Farm Women's Conference is back for another round of virtual sessions.

In honour of Manitoba Farm Women's Week Nov. 14-20, MFWC is hosting a pair of Zoom presentations on Monday, Nov. 15 and Wednesday, Nov. 17.

The online gatherings follow on the heels of a similar series held earlier this year, which MFWC committee member Tracy Chappell says were quite well-attended.

"I think it's something where people were looking for something to offset COVID — something to do — and that's why we're doing it again because we feel it's time to connect again," she said. "Although we can't connect in person like we'd like to, this is a way we can do it virtually."

Since its creation 30 years ago, the conference has sought to provide an opportunity for participants to network and share knowledge about the benefits and challenges of farm and rural living.

"It's a chance to get together and laugh and commiserate with each other," Chappell said, noting some farm families may have had a banner year, while others are struggling. "We've all been there before and so sometimes the older ones can impart their wisdom onto the younger ones. It's about being there to support one another."

"I think sometimes [living rurally] we feel distanced. But you're not alone."

This year's conference theme is "Gratitude and Wellness Within the Farming Community."

The Nov. 15 session, featuring guest speaker Kim Moffatt, will focus on mental health as it relates to those who make their living in the agricultural world.

Moffatt trained in psychiatric nursing and is a certified crisis counsellor who worked for the Manitoba Farm, Rural and Northern Support Services as well as the Manitoba Suicide Prevention Support Line.

She is able to use her own experience as a former farmer to help understand and connect with producers who are facing increasing stress levels.

"We really feel that mental health is something we're all learning about and realizing the importance of," said Chappell. "She going to come in and give us some tips on what to look for, what's available for people who are suffering."

Then, on Nov. 17, participants will hear from Portage la Prairie area producers Mark and Yanara Peters of Spruce Drive Farms and Stone Shed Gardens.

Together they produce 100 acres of seed potatoes and about 500 acres of grass and alfalfa hay alongside a new flower business to bring colour to people's lives.

Also on tap for the evening are Elise and her daughter Emily from Porch Drop Produce, who are bringing rural produce into the urban markets in Winnipeg.

It's a chance to showcase some options for shopping locally heading into the holiday season, Chappell said.

"I think the pandemic, if it's done anything, has made us realize that there's a lot of things in our own backyards that maybe we didn't realize were out there," she said, explaining the speakers will share their journeys and methods of reaching out to people, especially those who may not be connected to the rural areas.

MWFC is also encouraging people to share made in Manitoba products and businesses with them on their social media pages so they can help get the word out.

The sessions both run from 7 to 8 p.m. and they are free and open to all. Pre-registration is not required: simply join the meeting via Zoom at <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/7062595483> to take part (or head to the Manitoba Farm Women's Conference's Facebook page for a clickable event link).

You can also email mbfarmwomen-sconf@gmail.com for more information.

and make it more commonplace for these subjects to be discussed proactively, as opposed to when it is too late."

Campbell's goal is to raise $500 by the end of November, and there are a couple ways to donate through the Movember campaign. One way is to search for "Alan M Campbell" on Facebook and open his Movember Facebook Fundraiser. Another option is to visit the Movember webpage at ca.movember.com and type "Alan Campbell" in the search bar.

"The most important thing is that you donate," he said, "whether it's on my page or someone else's."

From the Government's Election Platform:

Canada Is Set to Become a Global Leader in Levelling the Playing Field for Local News

Levelling the Playing Field with Digital Giants

In 2021, most Canadians get their news from digital platforms which drives key advertising revenues away from Canadian news organizations and towards platforms owned by social media companies and digital giants.

A re-elected Liberal Government will:

- Introduce legislation, within 100 days, that would require digital platforms that generate revenues from the publication of news content to share a portion of their revenues with Canadian news outlets. This legislation would be based on the Australian model and level the playing field between global platforms and Canadian news outlets. The bill will also allow news publishers to work together to prepare for collective negotiation.

In a democracy, nothing is more vital than a healthy, vibrant local news media. But the threats from Big Tech are increasing every day.

The government's 100-day plan will place Canada in the front ranks of global leadership standing up for local news. The commitment is clear. All parties in Parliament support decisive action. Now is the time to act and pass legislation by early 2022.

News Media Canada, representing hundreds of trusted titles in our print and digital media industry, and our news publishing partners across Canada and around the world, call on Canadian parliamentarians to work together to level the digital playing field between local news and Big Tech.

Hofer earns win, picks up an assist in NHL debut

Staff

St. Louis Blues' goaltender Joel Hofer had quite the NHL debut against the San Jose Sharks last Thursday.

Hofer made 23 saves and recorded an assist on an empty-net goal with a minute remaining in the game, helping the Blues to a 5-3 win.

"I found out I'd be starting (Thursday) morning," Hofer told Blues' reporter Chris Pinkert after the game.

"Obviously there were a lot of emotions going through my head, but it's super special. You dream of it your whole life ... and to get the win in your first game, too, it's just a cherry on top."

His NHL debut was quite the experience and he was given a warm welcome by Blues' players.

"Everybody was coming up to me, saying good job, stuff like that," Hofer said. "It helps a lot, knowing (the team) has my back and I've got theirs. There was lots of support from the guys."

Hofer is now among just five goalies in NHL history to win and record a point in their NHL debut. He joins Alex Auld, David Goverde, Ron Tugnutt and Bob Froese.

"Every day I just try to go out there and do my best, focus on the things I can control," Hofer said. "I'm super thankful I was given the opportunity to be up here and play games."

The 21-year-old, who has family living in the Interlake, was a fourth-round draft pick (107th overall) of the Blues in 2018. He has played in four games with the American Hockey League's Springfield Thunderbirds this season, posting a 3-0-1 record with a 1.74 goals-against average and .936 save-percentage.

In three seasons, Hofer has appeared in 15 career AHL games.

LeClair makes 47 saves in shutout win

By Brian Bowman

The Interlake Lightning snapped a three-game losing streak with a solid 1-0 victory over the Winnipeg Bruins in U17 AAA action last Friday in Warren.

Ian Buors scored the game winner in OT.

"It was a good game on a Friday night for us," said Lightning head coach Aaron Kaatz. "It was the first time that we had played them this year so we were curious to see what they would bring from the other side. We rose to the occasion and it was a great game."

Dylan LeClair was phenomenal in goal, making 47 saves for the well-deserved shutout.

"He's been absolutely stellar for us so far," Kaatz said. "The two wins that we have so far have both come from him. He's beaten the Wild and now has taken down the Bruins."

With the win, Interlake improved its record to 2-9. After an 0-5, the Lightning are 2-3 in their past five games.

"For me, it's a brand new group here and we have a lot of new guys that are new to the AAA league," Kaatz said. "We break our season into five-game chunks, so our first five games were dedicated to our learning phase. We tried to get back to the basics and try to play the right way. Our last couple of games and, especially with our wins, we had consistent efforts for the entirety of the game and we've done the little things right out there and it has led to success for us."

Interlake will play the Bruins on Wednesday (6:30 p.m.) at Southdale West before hosting the Winnipeg Wild on Friday (7:30 p.m.) in Warren.

On Saturday, Interlake will battle the Eastman Selects in Ste. Anne. Game time is 6:30 p.m.

In U15 AAA action, the Lightning split a pair of games last weekend.

On Saturday, Interlake earned its first victory of the season with a solid 4-3 overtime win over the Pembina Valley Hawks in Morden.

Dainen Jacobson's second goal of the game was the game winner in OT.

Foxx Domansky and Mason Bernier also scored for the Lightning.

The Hawks' goals came from Noah Brigg, Alex Vasko and Jaxon Hildebrand.

Braedan Cormack made 38 saves for the win.

Sunday saw the Lightning get doubled 6-3 by the Winnipeg Thrashers Gold.

Quinn McKnight, Cole Swanson, and Talon Hogg scored for Interlake.

Winnipeg goals were tallied by Maddox Malmquist (two), Hubert Clarke, Crue Gard, Griffin Rarog and Sage Dela Cruz.

Interlake will host the Winnipeg Thrashers White on Wednesday (7 p.m.) in Stonewall and then will play the Central Plains Capitals on Sunday (5:15 p.m.) in Portage la Prairie.

Thunder roll past Parkwest in RMFL semifinal

By Brian Bowman

It wasn't easy, but the Interlake Thunder certainly made it look that way on Sunday afternoon.

The Thunder rolled to a very impressive 70-0 victory over the Parkwest Outlaws in a Rural Manitoba Football League semifinal in Stonewall.

"There is something to be said for having a good week of practice and we had a really strong effort and complete game out of the team. You're going to get breaks when you play that way," said Thunder head coach Mitch Obach. "We were really pleased with the effort and hopefully we can build on that this week."

The Thunder's Tucker Knutson had a great game at quarterback with seven carries for 177 yards and four touchdowns. He was also 6-for-10 passing with a TD.

"It was his first-ever game at quarterback with Kendel injured and he had a huge game," Obach noted.

Lucas Kmet also had a very good game on the ground with eight carries for 98 yards and a touchdown while Blake Good ripped off a 20-yard TD run.

Lee LaPierre had a five-yard TD run and a 10-yard TD catch.

Defensively, the Thunder were equally impressive with five interceptions.

Preston Vermette, Liam Palsson, Simon Desjarlais, Alex Luke and Erik Palsson each picked off a Parkwest pass. Palsson returned his interception for a touchdown.

With the victory, Interlake will now host the Moosomin Generals for the Murray Black Cup this Saturday at 2 p.m. in Stonewall.

TRIBUNE PHOTO BY LANA MEIER

The Interlake Thunder defeated the Parkwest Outlaws 70-0 in a RMFL semifinal game last Sunday in Stonewall. Interlake will battle Moosomin for the Murray Black Cup this Saturday at 2 p.m. in Stonewall.

Moosomin defeated the Virden Golden Bears 30-26 in their semifinal game last Saturday.

Interlake will have a tough test with Moosomin.

"They definitely throw the ball more than other teams we've seen this year and they play more of a spread offence so that will be a little bit of a different look," Obach said.

All three teams from Interlake's Prairieland Division lost their playoff game on Saturday. That had the Thunder a tad concerned heading into their semifinal clash with the Outlaws.

"I think part of the motivation that propelled us on Sunday was that the other three playoff games happened and they were all games where teams played against the other division and the teams from our division all lost," Obach said. "Our guys (we're wondering), 'Are we in a weak division and, (if so), we better bring it.' (Parkland is) 0-6 but they might be a good 0-6 in a tough division."

Win or lose this weekend, the Thunder have had a very successful season, especially after starting 0-3.

"When you can play football in November, that's all that you can ask for and not a lot of teams get to finish a season with a win," Obach said. "We hope to be one of those teams. We started 0-3 and have won three of our last four and three straight at home. 'Hopefully, we can keep it going for one more week.'"

U15 'AA' Lightning icing the competition

By Brian Bowman

The Interlake Lightning have had a great start to their U15 'AA' hockey season.

Interlake was a perfect 5-0 heading into this past Tuesday's road game against the Lord Selkirk/Seven Oaks Rebels Black.

"We're getting contributions from everyone, which is good," said Lightning head coach Cody King last week. "We have 17 kids and they're all showing up and giving their best effort and that's basically what it is. We don't have a bunch of superstars that are scoring us goals every game. It's been a real team effort."

The Lightning have been playing some great defensive hockey while getting very strong goaltending which has resulted in victories.

"(Our) goalies are giving us a chance to win every game," King said.

Interlake has had great success despite having only three returning players at the U15 level.

"I've been with this team for the last three years and, at every practice, I bring out five APs," King explained. "So, all of the kids that AP'd for me last year made the team this year."

King has seen the players improve tremendously over the years.

Players on the team come from all over the Interlake and the program has had a lot of interest from kids. Forty kids came out this year for try-outs.

"The first year we had 17," King said, noting Foster Bytheway and Kristjon Finnson are helping coach the team.

The Lightning's last game was a solid 5-3 win over the St James Canadians on Oct. 31 in Stonewall.

Liam Butcher (two), Owen Shymko (two) and Justin Braid scored for the Lightning. Dylan Riddell, Braid and Noah Chartrand had assists in the game.

Liam Ivany earned the win in goal.

Stonewall volleyball teams begin playoffs

Staff

The Stonewall Collegiate Rams' varsity boys' volleyball team was in a must-win situation on Monday.

Stonewall hosted the St. James Jimmies in a AAA provincial qualifier on Monday but no score was available at press time.

The winner of that game advanced to play the Westwood Warriors this past Tuesday. The three teams are vying for a spot in the MHSAA AAA provincials.

The Rams wrapped up their regular season with a 3-0 (24-26, 21-25, 16-25) home loss to the Warriors on Nov. 2.

Stonewall had a solid 3-0 (25-23, 25-22, 25-22) win over the Jimmies on Nov. 1.

The WWAC Tier 2 playoffs begin this Wednesday with quarter-final action. The semifinals are slated for Nov. 15 while the final is scheduled for Nov. 18.

The Rams' varsity girls' team, meanwhile, played a AAA qualifier on Tuesday against the winner between John Taylor and St. James. Stonewall will then take on Sturgeon Heights in a WWAC quarter-final game on Wednesday.

The Rams concluded their regular season with a 3-0 sweep over the Shaftesbury Titans. Stonewall easily won by scores of 25-7, 25-15, 25-11.

The Stonewall Collegiate Rams' Charli Reimer passes the ball during league action last week. Stonewall played a AAA qualifier on Tuesday and will take on Sturgeon Heights in a WWAC quarter-final on Wednesday.

U18 Lightning topped by Thrashers twice

By Brian Bowman

The Interlake Lightning suffered a pair of one-goal losses to the Winnipeg Thrashers last weekend.

Carter Bear scored the game winner at 14:54 of the third period to lift Winnipeg to a 4-3 victory in Manitoba AAA U18 Hockey League action Saturday in Teulon.

The Thrashers' Daniel Tokariwski had tied the score at 3-3 at 10:28 of the final frame.

Winnipeg took a 2-0 lead with power-play goals from Hayden Chaloner and Tokariwski.

But Interlake's Evan Calder tallied midway in the second period and then Hayden Wheddon and Liam Cody, on the power play, tallied early in the third.

Wheddon and Calder each had two points in the game.

Lightning goaltender Zach Meadows stopped 37 Thrashers' shots.

On Friday, the Lightning lost 6-5 in overtime to the Thrashers in Winnipeg.

Tokariwski scored the game winner on the power play in OT. He earlier tallied a first-period goal.

Interlake's Alexander Kaczorowski had tied the score at 5-5 with a power-play goal at 7:34 of the third period. It was his second goal of the game.

The Lightning's other goals were scored by Wheddon, who had three points in the game, Darian Sinclair and Andrew Thevenot.

Chaloner (two), Bear and Xyon Kiemeney also scored for Winnipeg.

Ty Hogue and Meadows split the goaltending duties for the Lightning.

Interlake, now 4-9-1, will host the Winnipeg Bruins on Wednesday (8 p.m.) in Teulon and then will head north to Thompson to play the Norman Northstars on Saturday (7:30 p.m.) and Sunday (1:30 p.m.).

Swanson scores game winner for Warren

Staff

The Warren Mercs scored a pair of third-period goals as they came back to defeat the Notre Dame Hawks 3-2 in South Eastern Manitoba Hockey League action on Saturday in Warren.

Brock Gentk tied the score at 2-2 with a goal at 7:01 of the third and then Eric Swanson netted the game winner about five minutes later.

Wes Pawluk gave the Mercs' a 1-0 first-period lead but the Hawks came back with goals from Nico Vigier and Vincent Grift before the opening frame ended.

Hayden Dola made 42 saves for the win.

The Mercs (2-0) will host the Morden Bombers (1-1) this Saturday at 8 p.m.

Stonewall stops Sanford in hockey

Staff

The Stonewall Collegiate Rams defeated the Sanford Sabres 3-1 in Winnipeg High School Hockey League action last Thursday.

Regan Hoess snapped a 0-0 tie with a beautiful wrister that found the top corner of the net to give Stonewall a 1-0 lead.

After Sanford's Kadya Robertson tied the score, the Rams' Ty Woods and Brody Stovin tallied to give Stonewall a two-goal lead.

Stonewall was extremely good defensively the entire game, allowing just 11 shots on goal.

"The defence played a smothering game ... and the Rams' relentless forecheck stymied Sanford's bid to break out of their own zone time and time and again," read a statement on the Stonewall Collegiate website.

Stovin was presented the player of the game by teammate Tristan Shore who remarked, "Stoves had an excellent game and finally didn't cough one up for a breakaway goal. Well done boys."

Stonewall now has eight points and is tied for fourth place with the Kildonan East Reivers in the nine-team Winnipeg Free Press West Division standings heading into this week's action.

The Rams, 2-2 in regulation time along with an overtime win, will host College Gabrielle-Roy on Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. in Stonewall.

Wildcats win Zone 5 'AA' varsity volleyball titles

Staff

It was a clean sweep for the Warren Collegiate Wildcats at the Zone 5 "AA" varsity volleyball championships in Warren last Thursday.

The girls defeated the Arborg Athletics 2-0 (25-15, 25-11) in the championship game.

Warren reached the final after downing the Ashern Cobras 2-0 (25-9, 25-7) in a semifinal match.

In pool play, the Wildcats were 4-0 after 2-0 victories over the Teulon Saints (25-11, 25-6) and the Peguis

Wolverines (25-6, 25-8).

Teulon placed third after defeating the Ashern Cobras 2-0 (25-18, 25-14).

On the boys' side, Warren swept Arborg 2-0 (25-21, 25-14) in the final.

The Wildcats advanced to the championship game after beating the Gimli Lakers 2-0 by scores of 25-15 and 25-23.

Warren finished the four-team pool play with a 4-2 record in sets. The Wildcats swept Ashern (25-16, 25-20) and Gimli (25-19, 25-19) but lost to Arborg (21-25, 22-25).

Jets snap four-game losing skid

By Brian Bowman

The Stonewall Jets fired 40 shots at River East Royal Knights' goaltender Ashton Howarth on Sunday.

But they only scored on three of them.

The result was a 4-3 road loss in Manitoba Major Junior Hockey League action.

Tyler Van Deynze scored twice for Stonewall while Matthew Smith also tallied. Smith is second in league scoring with 23 points (10 goals, 13 assists) heading into this week.

Landon Normand, Jack Stewart, Chase Sobey and Carson Winkler scored for River East.

On Friday, Stonewall snapped a four-game losing streak with a solid 4-1 home win over the Pembina Valley Twisters.

The Jets soared out of the gate with three first-period power-play goals to take a 3-0 lead. The first two goals were scored by Smith and then Cole Emberly tallied at 15:05 of the opening frame.

The Twisters' Mike Heppner scored a power-play goal in the second but the Jets iced the win when Smith netted an empty-net goal to complete the hat trick.

Liam Jardine made 26 saves for the victory.

Last Wednesday, the Jets lost 7-4 to the Royal Knights in Stonewall.

Tied at 3-3 in the third period, River East outscored Stonewall 4-1.

Stonewall, which held leads of 2-0 and 3-1, received goals from Nick Finnson, Cole Emberly, Michael Spence and Rhett Woods.

Carson Woytowich (two), Ashton Elias, Zachery Stepaniuk, Winkler, Sobey and Ben Marana scored for River East.

Josh Bond made 20 saves in the losing cause as Stonewall outshot River East 33-27, including 16-4 in the second period.

The Jets (5-8-1) will host the St. Vital Jr. Victorias on Friday and the Charleswood Hawks Sunday. Both games start at 7:30 p.m.

Loewen named MHSAA Dairy Farmers of Manitoba High School Athlete of the Week

From MHSAA

The Dairy Farmers of Manitoba High School Athlete of the Week is Reese Loewen of the Stonewall Rams varsity girls' volleyball team.

Loewen is an outstanding left-side player, who was instrumental in the Rams' recent success with her dominant play.

The Rams picked up victories over John Taylor and Sturgeon Heights in WWAC action. Loewen then continued her dominant play at the Virden tournament helping the Rams capture the championship.

"Reese is a leader on the team," said Rams' head coach Curtis Grieve. "She is an exceptional passer and defender, while also leading us offensively with her ability to attack using a variety of shots. She is a force in all aspects of the game and can set the tone with her big serve."

Loewen, a Grade 12 student, maintains a 90 per cent academic average.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Rural Municipality of Rockwood hereby gives notice that the Curbside Waste Pick-up Scheduled for November 11, 2021 has been changed to:

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2021

Council,
Rural Municipality of Rockwood

REASONS TO SHOP LOCAL

- Locally grown food is fresher & tastier than goods shipped from far away and products travel shorter distances and sometimes have less packaging which creates less waste.
- Buying local stimulates the economy, creates jobs and attracts investors to your region.
- Knowing the local shop owners means you get personalized service and a sense of community wherever you go.
- Encouraging local merchants teaches your children the importance of community
- Buying local means spending less money on gas, you spend less time travelling and more time with the people you love.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Level: intermediate

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Reporter/Photographer Wanted

Are you a natural born storyteller with an eye for photography and a passion for community news? The Selkirk Record is currently seeking a full-time reporter and photographer to join its multi award-winning weekly community newspaper. We are looking for someone who is both motivated and passionate about being the best outlet of interesting and breaking news stories and event coverage in the Interlake and surrounding area communities.

Qualifications:

- A post-secondary degree/diploma in journalism or equivalent experience in a related field
- Strong photography and writing skills with an interest in social media
- Self-starter with the ability to exercise solid news judgement
- Ability to establish professional relationships to consistently source and write a wide range of stories and cover events in a fair, balanced and accurate manner
- Able to work both independently and as a team on a flexible work schedule including both evenings and weekends to meet our weekly editorial deadline
- Experience covering council and school board meetings
- Knowledge of CP Style and about the Interlake and its surrounding communities would be an asset

Please forward your resumé along with three writing and photography samples to:
Email: news@selkirkrecord.ca

Deadline to apply is Friday, November 12.

How we miss our times with you, but so thankful for all of the wonderful memories. You will always be loved and remembered.

xoxo

-Your family

CARD OF THANKS

Realizing I forgot my wallet, after getting my car filled with gas, a young man stepped up and insisted to pay for it. I asked him to wait and I would come back and pay him. He referred to "PAY IT FORWARD". To this man I say thank you.

-THANK YOU,
Barry Tomyk

IN MEMORIAM

Marjorie Shepell

August 2, 1937 - November 12, 2020

On the Anniversary of The Day You Went Away
Today's the anniversary
Of the day that we lost you,
And for a time it felt as though
Our lives had ended too.
But loss has taught us many things
And now we face each day,
With hope and happy memories
To help us on our way.
And though we're full of sadness
That you're no longer here,
Your influence still guides us
And we still feel you near.
What we shared will never die
It lives within our heart,
Bringing strength and comfort
While we are all apart.

-Love Brenda, Norman, Char, Joey
grandkids and great-grandkids

There is a link death cannot sever,
Love and remembrance
last forever.

OBITUARY

Joanne O'Dell (Boyle)

With great love and sadness we announce the passing of our angel from this world into heaven on November 1, 2021 at Rosewood Lodge in Stonewall at the age of 68 years.

Joanne is survived by her beloved husband Larry of 47 years; sons Steve of Edmonton and Ernie of Winnipeg; brother Ron of Balmoral MB; sisters-in-law, Shirley Michaels (Joe) of Nanaimo BC, Janet DeWandel (Ken) of Williamsburg VA and Lori Sul (Don) of Winnipeg Beach MB; brothers-in-law, Bob, Greg (Irene) of Warren, MB and Clint (Linda) of Winnipeg, MB. Joanne is also survived by many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Joanne was predeceased by her brother Frank; father and mother Joe and Elsie; father and mother-in-law Jack and Ann.

Joanne was born October 2, 1953 in Stonewall and attended Brant-Argyle School, Stonewall Collegiate and Red River College. Joanne met Larry in 1971 and they were married on October 12, 1974. Steve and Ernie were born in 1977 and 78. Joanne worked several different jobs with time off to look after her boys then returning to the workforce, retiring in 2007. Joanne was a dedicated member of Stonewall Odd Fellows Lodge and Confidence Rebekah Lodge.

Joanne's greatest joy was her family, her garden and her flower beds. She also loved to be on the road travelling and seeing the countryside, never wanting to stay in one place too long.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, a memorial service will be planned for late spring of 2022 (June).

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Rosewood Lodge PCH 513 - 1st St N, Stonewall, MB R0C 2Z0 or Alzheimer Society of Manitoba 10 - 120 Donald St, Winnipeg, MB R3C 4G2.

The family wish to thank Dr. Venter and Dr. Hicks for their care and compassion. A huge thank you is extended to the staff of Rosewood Lodge PCH for their excellent care, Joanne truly was treated like royalty during her stay with them. A big thank you also to Joanne's visitors who were not sure that Joanne knew them, but still knew who she was.

Eventide

I want to know, when day is done,
That life has been worth living --
That I have brought somebody joy
Through kind unselfish living.
I want to feel, when evening falls
And shadows quickly lengthen,
That I have made somebody glad,
Some weakness I have strengthened.
I want to know, that come what may,
I've left some cheer and gladness;
I want to feel, at close of day
I've banished someone's sadness.
I want to feel at close of day,
That someone's cares were lighter.
Because of kindness I have done,
May someone's life be brighter.
